DIOCESAN GIRLS' SCHOOL

New Attendance Record Established

A large number of parents and friends attended the annual prize distribution of the Diocesan Girls' School, which was held in the School Hall on Saturday and which was honoured by the presence of Sir Thomas and Lady Southorn, the Rev. Bishop Ronald Hall, the Rev. W. Walton Rogers, Miss W. A. Robinson, Professor Roffey, Professor Forster, Mr. A. O. Brown, Inspector of Schools, Mr. S. M. Churn and Mr. J. F. Grose.

Miss H. D. Sawyer, Headmistress, in her annual speech reported very favourably on the year's attendance which constituted a record for the past twenty years. Twelve years ago the School had not two hundred pupils on the roll, but since then it had steadily increased until it had reached the record of 321 pupils. This, the Headmistress declared, was partly due to the increased accommodation provided and the enormous growth of Kowloon.

Progress on the newly formed Kowloon Tong branch of the School, was also very favourably commented upon by Miss Sawyer.

MISS SAWYER'S REPORT.

The School opened in 1933 on January 10 with a register of 299 pupils, which increased to 321 and which never went below 290.

These figures show a record for the past 20 years at least. Twelve years ago the school had not 200 names on the roll, but since then the increase has been steady, partly due to the fact that more class room accommodation has been provided, and partly due to the fact that the population of Kowloon has enormously increased during these years.

Staff Changes.
This year saw several changes on the personnel of the staff. Miss Turbett came to us in January, for Mrs. Lyl had left in December; Mrs. Kirby went on leave in February; Miss Bedford in March; and Miss Allen in April. We were fortunate to secure Mrs. Miller, an old friend who had taught in the school for a short while in 1924, in place of Mrs. Kirby, who has been unable to return to the Colony.

Miss Dowbiggin came, especially for the teaching of Domestic Science, because this subject was in the hands of Miss Bedford and Miss Allen, both of whom were on leave. We are very grateful to Miss Dowbiggin for the help she gave us.

Miss Cox came to us in May, and is now on the permanent staff. Miss Vaughan went home in August, and Miss Armstrong joined us in September. Two other members of the staff, both Old Girls, left us in July, and both are now happily married. Miss Doyle came to us in October and Miss Bedford returned in December, but Miss Wentworth went on leave the same month. Miss Lee was on leave from January until November, and Miss Henderson, now Mrs. McLellan, very kindly carried on during Miss Lee's absence. Mrs. Patey is teaching in the Kindergarten, while Miss Holland is on leave, and Miss Dalziel is working there also as a Kindergarten student. Mrs. de Blerie resigned at the end of November, Miss Matheson is now on the staff as Matron.

The usual half yearly examinations were not held in July this year, but each class was tested in every subject. In November we held school examinations at the same time as the local university exams, and promotions were made at the end of that month.

In June last we sent in 202 candidates for the Royal Drawing Society Exams. Of these 109 gained honours, and 89 passed. A prize from the Society has been awarded to one of our girls for Division III.

On September 9 pupils sat for the Trinity College music examinations, all of whom passed, 8 with honours.

In November we sent 2 candidates for the Local Matriculation and 1 passed. 10 candidates for the Senior and 8 passed.

Kowloon Tong Branch.
One of the important events of the school year was the opening of our Junior Branch School in Kowloon Tong. This took place in September. Months before, indeed in 1932, I was approached as to the possibility of such a school being started, but it was not until 1933 that we took any serious steps in the matter. A letter was circulated in order to find out how great a need there was for such a school and the whole question was seriously considered in Committee, with the result that preparations were made during the summer holidays.

Help Anticipated.
The school has been duly registered by the Government, and Mr. Brown paid them a visit one day in the autumn. An application for a Government Grant has been made, and we have every confidence that the Government will give its support.

Old Boy Honoured.
It may be of interest to some here to know that our first Library cupboard was presented to the school by Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton in memory of their son Lieutenant Stapleton, who was killed in action in August 1918. Mrs. Stapleton has this week presented the school with a portrait of Lieutenant Stapleton, which at the present moment stands on the piano. He is an Old Boy of whom the school is proud.

The school is very greatly indebted to Mr. Smith of the Kowloon-Canton Railway, for coming to the school once every week to give the girls lectures on some scientific subject.

School Bazaar.
Our School Bazaar was held in December last and was a great feature of the school year. We are very grateful to all those many friends and parents who helped to make it a success. More than 50 per cent of the proceeds has been given to various charities, some of the rest has already been spent on the school, and some is in the Savings Bank waiting to be used very shortly.

I do not like closing on a note of sadness, but it is with real and heart-felt regret that I have to say Good-bye to the Rev. Mr. Rogers, our school's Honorary Secretary. He has been a real help and friend to me, giving me far, far more than any of you realize, and the school is, I think, with a true and sincere friend.

SIR THOMAS SOUTHERN

After Rev. Walton Rogers had addressed the gathering, Sir Thomas Southern said:—Miss Sawyer and Girls of the Diocesan Girls' School: I received with no little astonishment a few days ago an intimation from Miss Sawyer that I was down on the Agenda of to-day's proceedings to address the school. Now I had laboured under the fond delusion that I should have finished my share of the entertainment when I had safely delivered my wife at the school and that the rest of our joint duties would have fallen to her lot. But I was quickly "made to understand" that "delivering the goods" in this instance meant for me something very much more than merely seeing that my wife arrived safely at the school and that I was not to be allowed then to sit back for the rest of the afternoon with the self-satisfied air of one who has successfully completed his allotted task.

I found that other and more important work had been entrusted to me, and I felt that I could not disturb Miss Sawyer's arrangement for the division of the afternoon's labours.

"When You Are Angry."
Miss Sawyer mentioned the Girl Guides, well, you know how interested my wife and I are in the Guides and how we think Guiding is the finest movement for girls the world has ever seen. Consequently I was delighted to hear that the Guides of the Diocesan Girls' School had put their guide principles into practice and were able to smile under their difficulties. They were evidently aware of the advice given by Lord Baden-Powell, who is much the father of the Girl Guides as he is of the Boy Scouts in his recently published autobiography where he says:

"When next you are worried or angry, force yourself to turn up the corners of your mouth and smile, and you will find the value of this tip."

And I would add that this tip is valuable not only to Scouts and Guides but to every girl, whether she is a Guide or not in the Diocesan Girls' School.

The delightful presentation of a short play, "The Old Woman in the Shoe," by the pupils of the school preceded the prize distribution.

Lady Southorn, who was presented with a breakfast set and tea cosy, thanked the School for the honour of presenting the prizes. It was a long time since she had been to the School but this was because she and her husband were both very busy. Nevertheless, they were only too glad to give up their Saturday to come to the School and had spent a very pleasant afternoon. She wished the School a happy time during the coming year.

CHINESE CHORAL SOCIETY

There was a large gathering at the Great Hall of the University on Saturday night to witness the first concert given by the Hong Kong Chinese Choral Society.

All those who heard them were unanimous that the conductor Mr. J. Anderson Miller, L.R.A.M., had made a thorough selection of the material at his disposal. The sixty members of the choir sang very well together and were equally at home in Sea Shanties as they were in hymns and in the more dashing pieces such as "Billy Boy" and "Bound for the Rio Grande."

Other items on the programme included songs by Miss Irene Roe, Miss Dora King, and Capt. O.P. Jock. Mr. Oswald Lyon contributed violin solos in each half of the programme while Lt. Col. C.H. Kuine, D.S.O., O.B.E., was at the piano.

During the interval, Miss T.H. Shih, in a brief speech, explained that the Society was started under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. about two months ago. They were fortunate to have had the services of Mr. Miller, whose hearty and energetic work led to the excellence of the choir. Right from the beginning the members of the choir showed great enthusiasm and it was hoped next season to give one of the great English oratorios and also, if possible, to present a Chinese programme. She expressed the Society's indebtedness to Sir William Hornell for the use of the Hall and to the various ladies and gentlemen who contributed towards the success of their first effort.

Local Weddings

Groves—Skogland

The Union Church, Kowloon was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon when Miss Maxine Belle Skogland, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Skogland of Stratford, New Zealand, became the bride of Mr. Walter Montgomery Groves of the Hong Kong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co. and son of the late Capt. T.W. and Mrs. Groves.

The Rev. Dr. E.L. Allen, M.A. officiated.

The bride who was given away by Mr. L.J.F. Griffiths, made a charming picture in a gown of parchment lace, with toque to match and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. She was attended by Miss Ella Brown as bridesmaid, who wore a dress of powder blue spotted net matched by a picture hat of the same shade and a bouquet of deep pink carnations.

The matron of honour, Mrs. A. Spittles, the bridegroom's aunt, wore a dress of black angel skin by Felix, and a black hat with silver mountings.

Mr. L.J. Cave performed the duties of best man, and the bridal music was played by Mrs. Frank Short.

After the ceremony a reception

Xavier—Ward

A pretty wedding took place at St. Joseph's Church on Saturday afternoon when Miss Elphida M. Xavier, daughter of Mr. Xavier of the Gas Light and Coke Co. and Mrs. Xavier was married to Mr. R.G. Ward of the Chinese Maritime Customs.

The Rev. Father Riganli officiated. The bride was given away by her father and Mr. J.L. Boyes performed the duties of best man.

After the church ceremony, the parties adjourned to No. 72 Morrison Hill Road where a reception was held. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Ward left for Repulse Bay where the honeymoon is being spent.

TO-DAY'S WEDDING

The wedding will take place at the Union Church, Kowloon, to-day, of Mr. W. Trail of the Chinese Maritime Customs, and Miss Molly Groundwater of the Staff of Messrs. Jardine Matheson and Co.

was held at Palm Court, after which the happy couple left for their honeymoon which is being spent at Macao. The bride's going-away dress was a lime green ensemble with a white straw toque.

Weak nerves—and regain new Vitality

Of course you would look years younger and feel much stronger, if once your nerves could regain their strength. For irritability and that "run-down" feeling are only a question of nerves.

Start taking Sanatogen—famous all over the whole world as the nerve-food. Then you drink in new health and vitality and you soon feel a new flow of life go through your veins.

Gone will be that irritability, that restlessness, that tired feeling—gone all those troubles such as sleeplessness and lack of appetite. For Sanatogen conquers nerve-weakness, which is the basic cause of your complaints.

Full of energy and cheer, you will enjoy life again, your whole being radiating that youthful health which is the most attractive possession of woman.

Decide to start your course of Sanatogen without delay—get your package today.

"Although as a rule the fortunate possessor of excellent health, there are times when I find myself feeling rather run-down and headachy. At these times Sanatogen proves invaluable, and after a short course of this preparation I am quite fit again, and am able to carry on my work without any feeling of lassitude"—writes the well-known authoress.

Miss Kathlyn Rhodes,

Scotland Wins Amateur International At Glasgow

There was a full programme of league matches all over the country on Saturday and in some cases, the spectators were provided with plenty of excitement. The Arsenal and the Wolves, for instance, were engaged in a gruelling battle for the points with the former finally winning by the odd goal in five. They are now bracketed with Huddersfield for the first place in the first division league table.

The Scottish League also came in for its fair share of attention while the Amateur International between England and Scotland, at Glasgow, resulted in a win for the home team. The full results as cabled by Reuter, together with the league tables brought up-to-date will be found below:—

What The Prince Wears: Young Kipling's Books: The King's Investiture: O.T.C.'s Honoured At Universities

Special Air-Mail Service

London, March 2.

WHAT THE PRINCE WEARS

"I do not wear a waistcoat with a double-breasted jacket," the Prince of Wales told Lord Derby when looking at men's fashions during a visit to the British Industries Fair at the White City, London, yesterday. When Lord Derby expressed surprise, the Prince unbuttoned his overcoat and showed the blue shirt he was wearing underneath the unbuttoned waistcoat. The Prince also said that he liked double-breasted jackets.

Taking up a soft tweed cap, the Prince remarked, "I feel rather a culprit with regard to these. I have not worn them much, but intend to wear one in the summer."

Having been shown a tennis dress and a pair of tennis shorts, the Prince said, "I see no reason why any woman should not wear shorts. They are comfortable and the most practical costume for the game, and I don't think they lose anything in looks."

When a presentation was made to Lord Derby on behalf of the Textiles Section of the Fair, he said: "There is one peculiarity about my clothes. I always turn up the ends of my trousers. One day I had to go to see King Edward and I forgot to turn them down. The first thing he said when he saw me was 'I did not know my passages were so muddy.'"

YOUNG KIPLING'S BOOKS

It is from the library of the Comte de Suzzani at Lausanne that these Thackeray and the other treasures come. The Kipling section is rich in his earliest writings, including Kipling's first book, "Schoolboy Lyrics," which was printed by his parents in India when he was at school at Westward Ho in 1881. Then comes "Echoes," by two writers, who were Kipling and his sister Beatrice. The book contains thirty-nine poems, mainly parodies, of which Kipling wrote thirty-two, and in 1885 "Quartette," the Christmas annual of the "Civil and Military Gazette," written by his father, mother, sister, and himself, as recounted in an accompanying letter. "Departmental Ditties" followed in 1888. Before the books came "The School Budget," Hornsmond School, Kent, two numbers of a cyclostyle production dated 1898, one containing a letter from Kipling and the other a letter from Max Beerbohm and a caricature of Kipling by him. The Kipling Club should have a busy day at the sale.

The Conan Doyle Club—or is it the Sherlock Holmes Club?—which Mr. Christopher Morley writes of in America, should rally to the fine Conan Doyle group, which also comes up at this sale. It includes the magazines in which many of his stories first appeared, a great set of first editions, most of them with inscriptions by the author.

THE KING'S INVESTITURE

The King held an investiture at Buckingham Palace yesterday, at which he decorated men and women who appeared in the New Year's Honours List.

It was a full-dress function, and crowds outside the Palace watched officers of the Services in their scarlet and blue uniforms and men in levee dress walking across the forecourt.

As the King took his place in the throne-room at 11 o'clock the band of the guard of honour of the Coldstream Guards played the

KING ALBERT AS ALPINIST

Swiss Guide's Memories

GREAT COURAGE AND ENDURANCE

LONDON, Mar. 1.

M. Gottlieb Michel, the sports manager here, was for many years King Albert's favourite guide, and accompanied him on many of his ascents, especially since 1920.

This evening M. Michel said to me: "I am overwhelmed by his Majesty's death. It will distress mountaineers all over the world, because he was known—as I knew more intimately and particularly—as a climb of great courage and endurance."

"Once he had decided that a certain climb was feasible, he would not give it up, but would plan and plan until it was accomplished."

"Of the many climbs I had with him the finest, I think, was an ascent of the Jungfrau from the Lauterbrunnen side. Indeed, I would describe it as an almost perfect climb, and one that worked out precisely according to plan."

"He was not very communicative at any time; he always thought a great deal more than he spoke. But I know he was very satisfied with the achievement, and I was all the more pleased because on that occasion, as on all others, I went with him as a personal friend and not as a professional guide."

"The Engelberg region was for years a favourite district with King Albert, and so were several portions of the Bernese Oberland. Here again, he was careful to respect weather conditions, and was always prepared to take the advice of those who could speak with experience. I don't think I ever heard him criticise other people's mountaineering, though."

"I should describe him as a very great sportsman, with a very cool head and all the qualities required for this strenuous recreation. After you had been in his company you could not help realising that he was also a very great man. We shall miss him here in Switzerland, I assure you."

Some Notable Climbs

No modern European monarch has pursued so hazardous a hobby with so much enthusiasm as King Albert in his mountaineering holidays. He was known on the Bernese Oberland and in the Dolomites for an intrepid climber, and his expeditions were all conducted with complete informality and lack of ceremony.

MR. A. E. WOOD DEPARTS

His Two Ambitions During Retirement

The Hon. Mr. A. E. Wood, former Secretary for Chinese Affairs, left for home on retirement by the s.s. "Chitra" on Saturday. Interviewed by Press representatives he said he would probably live in London during his retirement and pursue his two ambitions in life—to translate Chinese poems and to get his golf handicap down to single figures. He also expressed the wish that the Chinese Recreation Club of which he was an honorary life member, would take up cricket again and enter the League next year.

FOOTLIGHT PARADE

Coming To Queen's
And Alhambra

Seventy-two thousand pearls, graduated in size from a pea to a walnut, were used to dress one hundred beautiful girls in a single number of "Footlight Parade," the Warner Bros. lavish new musical pictures which will be shown simultaneously at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres from Wednesday.

A water scene, in which camera shots actually were taken ten feet under the surface, shows the hundred sea nymphs, daughters of Neptune, in luxurious, although briny, surroundings. Costumes, of course, had to be waterproof, and studio designers with the co-operation of Dance Director Bush Berkeley, conceived the plan of clothing the girls in bands of golden rubber, molded to their figures, and outlined with pearls.

Five hundred gross of pearls proved to be the number required, while three hundred yards of net and a similar amount of the golden material "barely" covered the hundred beauties.

The water nymph scene is one of the beautiful and unique numbers of "Footlight Parade," a pic-

Coming to the King's Theatre

A romantic melodrama of very young persons and their problems in love provides interesting screen fare in "Chance at Heaven." RKO-Radio Pictures' film version of Vina Delmar's latest story which was recently popularized as a serial in Liberty Magazine, the new attraction at the King's Theatre on Wednesday.

With Joel McCrea, Ginger Rogers and Marion Nixon involved in an intriguing triangle of romance, marriage and heartbreak, "Chance at Heaven" presents and unravels the problems of Blacky Gorman, Marc Harris and Glory Franklin. Blacky and Marje have been childhood sweethearts, in their New England town, and are all prepared to enter matrimony now that Blacky is an established proprietor of his own automobile service station.

As the wedding bells are about to resound through the town, Glory Franklin enters Blacky's life. On vacation from New York and her ultrasophisticated smart society set, Glory lavishes feminine wiles and fascinating beauty upon Blacky, which result in an elopement.

Like a good soldier, Marje stands by and aids Glory in setting up house for Blacky. When Glory learns she is to have a baby, her mother takes her to California. Blacky shortly thereafter realizes that his "chance at heaven" is in the New England town in Marje Harris.

Combined with the enthralling romance of "Chance at Heaven" as only Vina Delmar can depict it, is an abundance of comedy. A great deal of it is attributable to Andy Devine in his role of Blacky's gas station assistant, William Seiter directed the picture with Lucien Littlefield, Ann Shoemaker, George Meeker and Virginia Hammond also in the cast.

Maurice Chavalier In

A Bedtime Story

The current programme at the Queen's Theatre can be thoroughly recommended as one of the best productions in which that popular star, Maurice Chavalier has figured.

The film is a good example of the versatility of Chavalier. As a millonaire, the opening stages show him as a happy-go-lucky irresponsible bachelor making love wherever he goes. Even his personal valet's wife is marked out for attention.

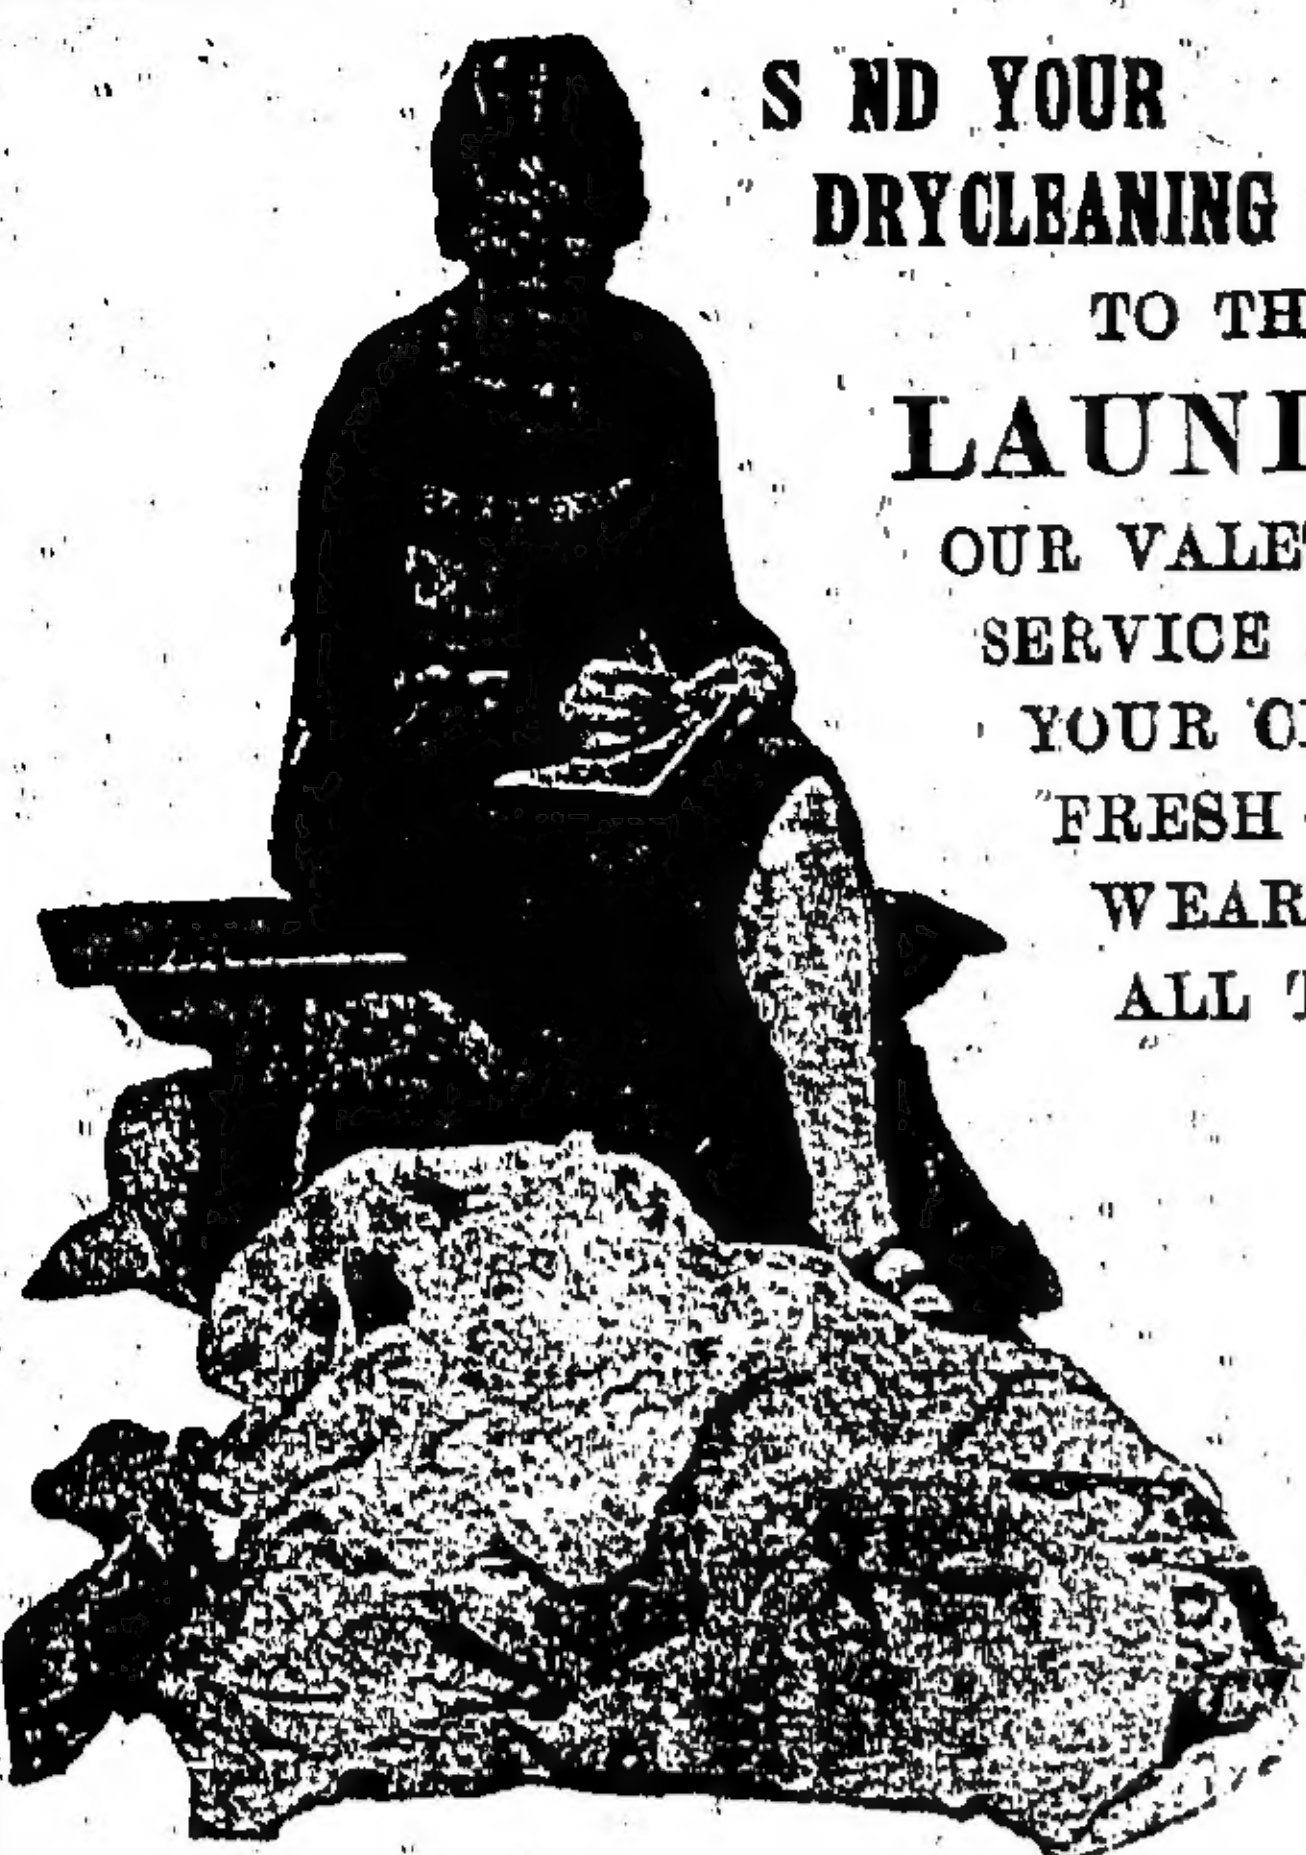

Into this life comes a baby, a child left in his Rolls Royce. Chavalier is at once drawn to him and in his bachelor home he and his valet get into all kinds of complications trying to "mind the baby."

All his appointments with his women acquaintances are forgotten, leading to much hard feeling that lends itself as an excellent medium for humour. However, a nurse arrives on the scene, baby's troubles are no more, but Chavalier's troubles begin all over again.

The supporting cast is excellent. Edward Everett Horton as "Victor" the valet is responsible for quite a good bit of the humour. Helen Twelvetrees as "Sally," the nurse, takes the leading feminine role while others in the cast include Adrienne Ames, Baby Leroy, Leah Ray, Betty Lorraine, and Gertrude Michael.

For anyone wanting a good hearty laugh, "A Bedtime Story"

Around the Courts

THEFT OF A RADIATOR CAP

Chinese Gets Three Months' Gaol

Before Mr. Hamilton at the Central Magistracy, on Saturday morning, a Chinese named Wong Chee Hang, described as an employed, was charged with theft of a radiator cap from a private car No. 4116, which was parked in the Hospital Road, shortly after 3 p.m. last Friday afternoon. It was stated by a Chinese detective that the defendant was arrested in Queen's Road Central with the article in his possession.

After being arrested, the defendant told the Police where the car was parked and it was soon discovered that the cap belonged to a private resident.

The defendant pleaded "guilty" and a sentence of three months' hard labour was imposed.

SUSPICIOUS BEHAVIOUR

Returning Banishment Sent To Gaol

A Chinese named Wong Hing appeared before Mr. Hamilton at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning, charged with (a) loitering in Ewo Street, Wanchai, in the early hours of last Friday morning for an unlawful purpose and (b) breaking a breach of his Deportation Order.

It was stated that the defendant was seen standing by a window of a private residence and peeping into the house. The defendant was also discovered by the Police to be a returned banishment. After hearing all the evidence, his Worship imposed a sentence of six months' hard labour on the first charge and another of twelve months on the second count. The sentences will run on concurrently.

SERGEANT'S ACT COMMENDED

Early Morning Arrest

For breaking and entering house No. 18, Yes Woo Street, ground floor in the early hours of Friday morning, and for returning to the Colony after having been banished, Wong Hing was sentenced to 18 months' hard labour by Mr. Hamilton at Central Magistracy on Saturday.

According to Sergeant Fitches the accused entered the house by bending a bar in the door. When the alarm was raised by Lo Lize, a widow who occupied the floor, accused ran towards the roof.

Sergeant Reddish, who was on duty at the vicinity at the time, answered the alarm and caught defendant hidden behind a chimney.

His Worship instructed Sergeant Fitches to bring the knowledge of Sergeant Reddish's act to the I. G. P., saying that it was dangerous to arrest a man at two o'clock in the morning.

Letter From An English Godmother

TO HER SMALL GOD-DAUGHTER OVERSEAS

Dear Little Ann.—This is to wish you very many happy returns of the day. It must be great fun to be Four.

One of the first things I can remember is awakening on my fourth birthday. (Oh! I forgot, it is your fifth birthday when you are four years old), and rushing in to my daddy's dressing room gasping—"I'm Four at last," and wondering why he laughed.

Do you realise, Little Ann, that you are a British Possession, and to be that is, of course, a very important thing?

To lots of girls this just means that you are likely to be able to sit a horse better than most; that you are brought up with more freedom than little girls of other countries; that, when you have been presented at the court of the King and Queen of England, all the courts of the world are open to you, and a few things like that. But, to you I think it will mean more; for, with an English Mummy and a Scottish Nannie, you will learn lots of things, besides having history stories sharing the honours with fairy tales.

I have sent you a parcel, and as it is addressed to you, you must open it yourself. It is very mixed, and I will tell you why I have chosen each of your presents.

First of all, at the top of the case is a little blue cashmere coat. Blue to match your eyes, and cashmere because it is soft and snug and warm, and woven up in Scotland where people who have been doing it for generations, weave the best woollens in the world. The little coat was tailored by an Irishman in London; so you see, there is a little bit of Thistle and Shamrock and Rose in it.

There are two books—"The Just So Stories," because you love stories about animals, and because you will like them just as much when you grow up as you will now. "When We Were Very Young," because you like "pomes," and soon you will learn to say these yourself.

Tucked away at one side are a box of Edinburgh Rock and another of Doncaster butter scotch, because most little girls I know like them, and at the other side are two tins of Ovaltine. The candles will be doled out by Mummy, but the Ovaltine will be swooped on by Nannie, because, lasting good, it is so good for you. It will help you to grow up slender and strong, and to have a complexion like that "dame of Kilkenny" old Terence, our groom, used to sing about.

In the town of Kilkenny there lives a fair dame, Her cheeks are like roses, her lips just the same, Or a dish of wild strawberries, smothered in cream.

As you always want to "see the wheels go round," and to know "what's in that," I'll tell you what's in this.

There is milk from silky coated cows with names like "Primrose," "Buttercup," and "Daisy," and they live in big airy barns, as clean and airy as your nursery. Barns with velvet thatch and big beamed roofs, and the cows are looked after by men in white

REGISTRATION OF ALIENS

Details Of Local Ordinance

With regard to the Registration of Persons Ordinance, 1934, which passed its first reading at the Legislative Council Meeting on Thursday last, the following requirements of the Bill may interest readers.

Unless specially exempted by the provisions of the ordinance or by the Inspector General of Police, every alien in the Colony will have to be registered with the authorities on a form provided by the ordinance. Departures from the Colony, fresh arrivals in the Colony, and changes of business and residential address must be notified to the Police.

The ordinance will only come into operation after proclamation, and when it does, aliens who are already here will be given a month to register and new arrivals must register within 72 hours. Changes of address or intended departure must be notified within a week.

The registration section does not apply to:—

- (1) Consular Officers of foreign states and the members of their families;
- (2) The personnel of any ship which is in the waters of the Colony and passengers residing thereon;
- (3) Persons not exceeding 16 years of age.

coats, like that dentist, who interested you so much a little while ago.

In it, too, there are eggs laid by white leghorn hens, who are brought up in clean warm houses and who, when they are half-grown, have sun-parlours like your sun-room at home.

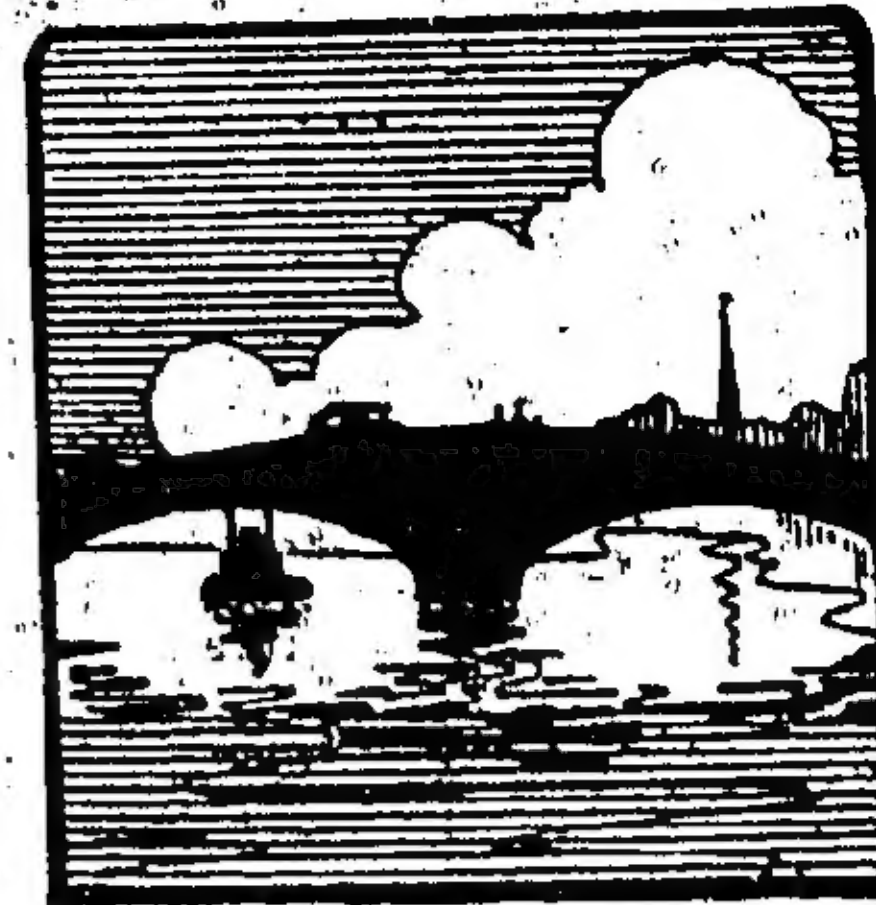

Then, there is malt which is made from the barley that grows in England's trim fields, and which rustles like a taffeta silk dress when you pass by the fields on a windy day. So, altogether, you see there is lots of England in it.

If you drink it hot on a cold evening, it will send you to sleep as warm as toast, and if you drink it cold on a hot evening, it will be cool and creamy and just as good. When you "drink up," you can think about those silky coated Jersey cows, the white hens, and the golden fields that helped to make it for you—and I hope you will drink my health, as I am going to drink yours on your birthday.

My best love to you, little British Possession, and grow up healthy and wise and happy, and then you will be wealthy enough to call your bird time, wherever you go.

The next meeting of the Sanitary Board will be held on Tuesday, March 24, at 4.15 p.m. when business of a purely routine nature will be discussed.

THE KING AND QUEEN

To Visit Scotland

The Lord Chamberlain announces that their Majesties will hold four Courts at Buckingham Palace on May 15 and 16 and June 12 and 13 and an afternoon drawing-room at the Palace of Holyroodhouse during the week commencing July 9.

The following regulations in respect of the drawing-room at the Palace of Holyroodhouse are promulgated by command of the King:—

Ladies

1—Scottish ladies desiring to be summoned to attend or to make presentations at this afternoon drawing-room are requested to make written application to the Comptroller Lord Chamberlain's Office, St James' Palace, London, S.W.1. Applications received subsequent to March 29 cannot be considered.

2—A lady attending may present one lady, for whom she must be responsible, in addition to her daughter or daughter-in-law. The names of ladies to be presented should be forwarded by the lady who wishes to make the presentation when she sends in her own name.

3—A lady presented for the first time can only present her daughter or daughter-in-law on the occasion when she is presented.

No applications can be received from ladies who wish to be presented. Their names must be forwarded by the ladies who wish to make the presentations.

4—As more applications have been received than can be absorbed in the Court at Buckingham Palace this year, it is their Majesties' wish that as many ladies of Scottish domicile as can conveniently do so, who have already applied to attend a Court at Buckingham Palace, should apply to transfer to the afternoon drawing-room at the Palace of Holyroodhouse.

5—Summonses will be issued to ladies about three weeks prior to the date of the afternoon drawing-room.

6—Morning dress, with hats, will be worn.

Gentlemen

1—Scottish gentlemen (other than serving Naval, Military, or Air Force officers stationed in Scotland) desiring to be summoned to attend or to make presentations at the afternoon drawing-room are requested to make written application to the Comptroller, Lord Chamberlain's Office, St James' Palace, London, S.W.1.

James' Palace, London, S.W.1. Applications received subsequent to March 29 cannot be considered. No applications can be received from gentlemen in the foregoing category wishing to be presented. The names must be forwarded by the gentlemen making the presentation.

2—Naval officers stationed in the Command desiring to attend or be presented should send their applications to the Rear-Admiral and Commanding Officer, Coast of Scotland.

3—Officers of the Army and Territorial Army quartered in Scotland desiring to attend or be presented should send in their applications to the General Officer Commanding, Scottish Command, Edinburgh.

4—Officers on the active list of the Royal Air Force and officers of the Auxiliary Air Force stationed in Scotland desiring to attend or be presented should send in their applications through the usual channels to the Air Ministry.

5—Levee dress or full Highland dress will be worn. The space available in the Palace being limited, it may not be possible to accept all applications. It is urgently requested that all applications may be made strictly in accordance with the above regulations.

Last Scots Visit

The last visit of the King and Queen to Edinburgh was in July, 1931. Their Majesties arrived in the Capital by train at 6.25 p.m. on Saturday, July 4, and they attended the Sunday morning service at St Giles.

There was an afternoon drawing-room at the Palace of Holyroodhouse on July 8 and a royal garden party in the Palace grounds next day.

On July 10 their Majesties paid a visit to Glasgow, where the ceremony of opening the Clyde Trust dock at Shieldhall was performed. They had luncheon in the City Chambers before returning to Edinburgh.

There was a Command performance in the Lyceum Theatre, Edinburgh, on the Saturday evening, and on the next day their Majesties again attended the morning service at St Giles. They left Edinburgh on July 13.

Palace Parties.

It was also officially announced last night that the King and Queen will give afternoon parties at Buckingham Palace on Thursday, March 15, and Thursday, March 22.

Guests will be received by the King and Queen and the functions will last about two hours. Distinguished figures in various spheres are among those to whom invitations have been sent.

LARGE CROWD ATTEND SPRING RACE MEETING AT MACAO

Sea View Wins Macao Derby

(BY "MORNING DEW")

The Taishan carried a very large number of passengers yesterday to Macao where the Spring Race Meeting of the Macao Jockey Club was held.

The feature of the day's racing was the excellent riding of Mr. P. P. Botelho, who won three races in a row and finished second in the Macao Derby on Potsdam. The last-named however was disqualified for crossing. Earlier in the afternoon, King Salmon was disqualified for the same reason after winning the Spring Handicap (first section).

Lemberg won the Chairman's Cup over a mile and set up a course record of 2.02.2. The previous best time for a mile was 2.05.1.

DERBY SWEEP PAYS $17,571.

A special $2 sweep on the Macao Derby paid out $17,571 as first prize. In view of the disqualification of the second pony, the prizes on the second and third places have not yet been allocated.

Favourites generally had a good day and consequently dividends were on the small side.

Opening Race

Glen Shee won the first race (once round) by beating City of Shanghai on the post, after the latter had led all the way up the straight.

Brutus led at the start, but was spent early on, while Jingle and Esk ran comfortably together until the straight was reached when City of Shanghai passed them and City of Shanghai passed them and locked all over a winner. Mr. Botelho on Glen Shee brought his pony out at the distance post and by hard riding gradually caught up with City of Shanghai. In a thrilling finish, he won by a short head.

Trial Plate

When Potsdam's name appeared among the starters in the Trial Plate, punters backed the pony heavily. Harbour View set a terrific pace and entered the straight four lengths ahead of Potsdam and Armistice day. Mr. Botelho's mount put up a great spurt in the straight to win by two lengths. Armistice day was third.

King Salmon

There were only four starters in the second section of the Spring Handicap. King Salmon was made favourite.

Adam and Ajax went into the lead together, followed some four lengths behind by King Salmon and Powerful King. After six furlongs the leaders had had enough and was being rapidly overtaken by the straight. King Salmon came through on the outside, but the former swerved across the field at the distance post. King Salmon passed the post half a length in front of Powerful King with Ajax three further lengths behind. After the race, the Stewards disqualified King Salmon.

Miss Fearon Wins

The ladies race drew six starters, but the race resolved itself into a tussle between Harbour View and City of Shanghai, the latter winning. Harbour View ridden by Miss Betty Fair led at the start and coming in the straight had a clear three lengths on City of Shanghai, but Miss Fearon, by dint of hard riding managed to pass the leader. Esk, for the second time in the afternoon, finished third.

Macao Derby

Seven starters in the Macao Derby over 1 1/2 miles. The earlier part of the race was very slow (first mile in 2.33) and it was only in the last half mile that there was any excitement.

Sporting Chance took a long lead and was only passed by Sea View at the head of the straight, where Potsdam and Lightning King were also prominent. Sea View won by two lengths from Potsdam who was three lengths ahead of Sporting Chance.

After the race, the Stewards held an inquiry and disqualified Potsdam for crossing.

Lemberg's Record

Lemberg and Soldier of Germany were equal favourites in this race over a mile, but the Chinese owned pony ran very badly and was not even placed. Lemberg led all the way home, being accompanied by a great part of the way by Sporting Chance, who ultimately finished second being three lengths behind. The same distance separated Sea View from the second pony.

Sarabande Again Beaten

Sarabande started a favourite in the last race, but was beaten by a neck by Utopian in the very last stride. The field of eight were closely bunched together most of the way and it was anybody's race up the straight. Sarabande and The Carp were fighting out a close finish when Utopian came along on the outside and just managed to win.

ORDINATION OF WILLIAM ARTHUR MOLYNEAUX

Bishop's Address At St. John's Cathedral

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Hall delivered the following address at St. John's Cathedral yesterday at the ordination of William Arthur Molyneux:—

"After the laying on of hands I shall hand a Bible to you, saying in the words which the Church instructs me to use, 'Take thou authority, to preach the Word of God, and administer the Holy Sacraments.'"

In the Ministry of the Church of God we are called to be ministers of God's Holy Word and of the Sacraments of His Love. Jesus Christ is the Word of God. We are His ministers. We must speak only what will lead men to Him, and live only what will share His love with others. This we cannot do in our own strength. "We have this treasure in earthen vessels."

You have come this morning knowing that we are earthen vessels, but that we have in the Church of God the treasure which is beyond price, the gift of the knowledge and the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

As a priest, you are authorized by the Church to administer the Sacrament of Holy Communion. The outward difference after today between your new position in the Church and that which you held as deacon will be in this privilege you will have of leading the people of God in the Breaking of Bread. This is for many reasons a very precious privilege.

There are three things about it which I wish to say to you this morning:—
A Minister Must Be A Giver
(1) The first is this. Your priesthood must be primarily pastoral. You must feed the flock of Christ. How are you going to do it? You have books to which you can go. You will be able to preach sermons. You can teach the Catechism. You can tell again the parables. You can relate stories of Christian experience. But, these things are not "hors d'oeuvres." They may whet the appetite, or indeed, they may make the appetite pall. For they are not solid meat. There is one food, and one food only, which the souls of men can live on, and that is the living Christ Himself. Sunday by Sunday henceforward it will be your duty to follow the practice of the early Church to Break the Bread with your fellow Christians. But day by day and hour by hour, it will be your joy and your privilege to feed them with that bread from Heaven which is the living Christ Himself. The first thing then that I want to ask you this morning is that you will always associate this occasion of your ordination to the priesthood, and your work as a priest in the Church of God, with this bread-breaking of Our Lord's—with this giving of His body and His blood.

For you must be above all things a Giver. You too must give your body and your blood. It is no good giving time to those in trouble, no good giving time to the wayward, no good giving time to the inquiring, unless behind that time is yourself, and unless behind yourself is a real, aching, a real struggling of love. Jesus gave Himself without stint in friendship, love and service, to those who would receive Him. Such was His love. His death was of a piece with His life. "Greater love," He said, "hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." On His last night on earth He gave us this "Wonderful Sacrament." He gave it first of all to those frightened followers. As a Master-Teacher he gave them this master-lesson. Because we learn best not by rote but by love and by appreciation. He gave them this Sacrament which is both drama and picture, to show them the meaning of His life and of His death.

"Your life must be hid with Christ in God." Your life too must have this giving quality. You know where it can be found. Not in yourself, not in your prayers, not in your friends, not even in those who love you, but in Jesus Christ Himself. Only as the knees of your soul are ever bent before Him, and the eager desires of your heart are like outstretched hands to receive the bread and the wine which He will give you, only so can you in your turn give what is His to your flock.

Words and More-Than-Words
(2) The second thing I would say to you is this. We deepest things in life often will not go into words. Human life is made up of Words and Sacraments. When words fail you turn to a sacrament. You cannot say what goodbye means perhaps, you cannot say what friendship means, but you send a book or you shake your friend's hands, or you go to the boat to see your friend off. There are times when the meaning in one's heart goes beyond words and one must act. Jesus' washing of His disciples feet was of this quality. Only by action could He express the more-than-words which was in His heart. You must have found in trying to describe to others your experience of Christ, or even in trying to describe some event or some beautiful scenery, that words are very thin things. For all their power they are often only a second best. "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father." You and I, as priests of God must preach the Word without fear and without favour, with love and understanding and with all the power that God will give us.

But when preaching has done its best, when speaking has done its best, we are not at the limit of the possibility of expression both of the love of God, of the love of our neighbour, and of the meaning of life lived with God. So Jesus for all His teaching, for all His explaining, for all His parables, was dumb before the final issue of His Going Away, of His strange death. And yet dumbness is often the beginning of the truest expression. So He took the Bread. He broke it; He gave it. Imagine the silence of that moment, and how those silent actions spoke beyond all that words can compass. He took the Cup and said, "Drink ye all of it; For this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many." "Father, if it be possible," He said in the Garden, "let this cup pass from me." This Cup they had already shared with Him, in the Upper Room and after His resurrection they drank it with Him both in life and in death.

I beg you then in your pastoral work to remember the importance of sacramental worship. Be faithful in administering the Sacraments both of Baptism and of the Lord's Supper. Build up a congregation wherever you go not dependent on the eloquence of the preacher, or dependent only upon the living word of God which they will read in the Bible, or dependent only upon regular attendance at the Bread-Breaking. Gathered up into the fulness of fellowship with our beloved Lord let each of these means of grace take their full share in the lives of your people.

Terribly Simple
(3) I want to pass on to you words that I heard only a few days ago about the Christian life. It was described as "terribly simple." Terrible indeed was that last Thursday evening; terrible indeed was the breaking of his body on the Cross; terrible above all other crucifixion because this was God Incarnate. The best and the worst that men could do was to break His body on the cruel tree, to throw His love in the dust and trample on it crying, "Away with Him." It is not at that He should live." It is a terrible thing then this Sacrament because it recalls continually those terrible days. It is terrible too because this same being is continually happening to the love of God. Day by Day, hour by hour, the love of God is offered to rebellious men. They refuse it and crucify the Son of God afresh.

"I would be," says an old English Saint, "to the Eternal Goodness what his own right hand is to a man." In coming forward as you have done because you believe you are called by God to receive the Ordination of priesthood, you are saying to God, "I would be to the love of God and to the Eternal Goodness, what his own right hand is to a man." You are daring, and rightly daring to share this terrible life with God, who offers His holy love continually to men and women. This Holy Sacrament is terrible but it is also simple. "This is my body." Jesus said, which is given to you. "This is my blood." He said "which is shed for you." Terrible things, that that precious body should be broken and that precious blood poured out. Terrible but simple. They are only bread and wine, the common meat and drink of the Palestinian peasant. And God Incarnate was a Carpenter, and we have simply to open our whole heart to Him to take Him in.

When we let ourselves be taken up into that Eternal life which we must live with God. Then in terrible simplicity is fulfilled in us the whole purpose of manhood. Let this Sacrament then of the bread-breaking which it will be your duty and your privilege to administer to the flock of Christ, be to you at once a terrible thing and a simple thing, because it is the outward and visible sign of that Incarnate

FRANCE STIFFENS UP

The composition of the new French Cabinet, following on the violent scenes in the streets and the general hostility expressed against the Radical-Socialist combination in France, would seem to be sufficient indication that French foreign policy is likely to be stiffened. Yet one should beware of falling into the common mistake—prevalent since the war—that the Radical governments are more inclined to favour rapprochements than the Moderate governments. Clemenceau was a Radical; Poincaré always called himself a man of the Left; Briand, who in fact made no real concessions, was considered advanced; Paul Boncour was a Socialist, and Daladier, who completed the French fortifications, was a Radical chief. It is not really a question of parties, and we should judge French politics badly were we to look merely at labels. It is not even a question of persons. It is a question of circumstances, and there is a time-lag before the circumstances impose a change of policy. For a number of years it was the fashion to speak of progressive conciliations, whether the facts bore out the interpretation or not. But for some time it has been seen that soft words scarcely correspond to the needs of the hour.

Perhaps the policy will not be perceptibly different; but it is probable that there will be a new snap in French pronouncements. M. Gaston Doumergue, a kind of super or honorary prime minister, has long considered the presentation of the French case to be too weak. The effective prime ministers (for there are two of them) seem to be M. Andre Tardieu and M. Edouard Herriot. Now, it is true that M. Tardieu, of the Center-Right, evacuated the Rhineland, and that M. Herriot, of the Radical Party, virtually wiped out reparations at Lausanne, and that they have reproached each other for these concessions; but it is evident that both M. Tardieu and M. Herriot are particularly insistent on the need for patriotic vigilance.

Then there is M. Louis Barthou, one of the elder statesmen who was responsible for the three years' military service law before the war, in the post of foreign minister. It is notable that soldiers are called in. Marshal Henri Petain, possibly the ablest commander in the war, is not made war minister for nothing. Another soldier has been put in charge of the air forces. Nor can it be overlooked that a "dishard" such as M. Louis Marin, avowedly a Nationalist, and M. Pierre Flaudin, temperamentally a "strong man," and M. Pierre Laval, a quiet but firm leader, are all included.

The Radicals proper who figure in the Cabinet are less known and are not likely to protest against a sterner foreign policy. The fact is that the time has come to re-examine European problems in the light of the development of Hitlerism in Germany and the deplorable situation in Austria. There has been an undeniable breakdown of the efforts at disarmament. There are fresh fears in Europe from the Baltic to the Black Sea. Beyond, there is a growing bitterness in the relations of Russia and Japan. An economic struggle between nations, fostered by the revived doctrine of autarchy, is apparently beginning. Altogether, apart from the uncertain political and financial outlook in France itself, it is plain enough that it is the duty of a French Government to revise the foreign policy of the country.

The rest of the world can but hope that France will be guided in the path of wisdom, and that its decisions will forward the cause of peace and understanding.

ELECTIONS IN ITALY

Fascists Expected To Win

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 25, 7.30 p.m.)

Rome, March 24. "Do you authorize the list of deputies chosen by the great National Fascist Council?" is the question the Italian people will have to answer when they go to the polls on Sunday. As the whole of the past week has been filled with electioneering speeches by members of the Governments and Fascist leaders, intensified propaganda has been going on at the same time.

It is expected that a very large percentage of those entitled to vote will go to the polls. As the participants have no choice but to vote "yes" or "no," the proceeding has rather the character of a plebiscite. All voting stations are decorated with flags and are brilliantly illuminated. Fascists have received instructions to appear at the polls in uniform. It goes without saying that a unanimous vote for the Fascist regime is to be expected.—Transocean Kuo Min.

OBITUARY

Mr. W. J. Hammer

New York, March 25. The death occurred to-day of Mr. William Joseph Hammer, an inventor associate of the late Mr. Edison, aged seventy-six.—Reuter.

DEATH OF FILM STAR

Disgusting Scenes At Funeral

New York, March 24. Scenes recalling Rudolf Valentino's funeral were enacted at the burial of the film star, Lilyan Tashman, who died last Wednesday.

A crowd of film star mourners had to fight through 10,000 shouting and jostling sightseers to reach the tiny chapel. Men festooned lamp posts and fire escapes.

Later, at Brooklyn Cemetery, when the graveside prayers were ended, hundreds of hysterical women rushed the police cordon, leaped over hedges, overturned gravestones, and tore the wreaths to fragments in their fight for souvenirs.—Reuter.

RETURN FLIGHT TO FRANCE

Mlle. Hilsz At Peiping

Seoul, March 24. The French aviatrix, Mlle. Maryse Hilsz, who recently flew from Paris to Tokyo, left here at 12.30 p.m. to-day for Peiping, on her return journey.

ARRIVES AT PEIPING. Peiping, March 24. Mlle. Hilsz arrived here safely this evening.—Reuter.

DE VALERA AND THE SENATE

Election Rumours Refuted

Dublin, March 24. Mr. de Valera is very seriously concerned by the Senate's rejection of the Blue Shirt Bill, but it is learned from authoritative sources that the Government has no intention of appealing to the country on the issue.

This seems to be borne out by the Bill which Mr. de Valera has prepared providing for the abolition of the Senate and which was introduced into the Dail yesterday.

Mr. de Valera will probably implement the Public Safety Act as far as possible towards the suppression of the Blue Shirt movement.

The Government organ, the Irish Press says that the removal of the last stronghold of British political power in twenty-six counties is provided for in the Bill introduced in the Dail of the abolition of the Senate.

The Irish Independent, on the other hand, says that Mr. de Valera cannot apparently brook democratic opposition.—Reuter.

INDEPENDENCE OF PHILIPPINES

Bill Now Signed By Roosevelt

Washington, March 25. Mr. Roosevelt has signed the Philippine Independence Bill, already approved by Congress, granting independence within from 10 to 12 years.

The measure is subject to approval by the Philippine Legislature, which must accept the Bill's terms by Oct. 1, otherwise the Bill lapses.—Reuter.

SOCIALISTS ON TRIAL

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press") (By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 25, 4.50 a.m.)

Vienna, March 24. The first series of trials of the Socialists for their participation in the February revolt came up before the Criminal Court on Friday, and ended with one accused being sentenced to six years' penal servitude and the other being acquitted on the ground of insufficient evidence.—Transocean Kuo Min.

If Gossip We Must

By PRUDENCE

News that "Cochran's Throw-Outs of 1934" had got-together again and were presenting a new programme at the European Y.M.C.A. at Kowloon attracted a large crowd last Monday night, and a most excellent entertainment was warmly applauded by an enthusiastic audience. Several newcomers have joined-up and the popular "Throw-Outs" now include:—

Eileen Bonnar, Joan Churchill, Barbara Hance, Margaret and Rosemary King, Eve O'Hagen, Audrey Steele, Eileen Stubbings, James Ferguson, Jack Grenham, and "Joe."

SHADOW WALTZ

Charming and original costumes, delightful dances, and up-to-date songs were interspersed with humorous items (the latter provided by the three men) and a bright and snappy entertainment was the result.

The big success of the evening was undoubtedly the "Shadow Waltz" in which Miss Margaret King sang her appealing little song with much sweetness and sympathy, and danced most delightfully with her two "shadows," Miss Eve O'Hagen and Miss Eileen Stubbings in the prettiest and most original "number" of the programme. Another popular dance was "Ship Ahoy" in which Miss Audrey Steele and Miss Eve O'Hagen (as captivating "sailor-boys") repeated their old success of 1933.

Miss Audrey Steele had quite a number of solos, but we liked her best as a smart little page-boy (or was she a bar-tender?) in "Drinks All Round" in which the diction of Miss Eileen Stubbings as "Angustura Bitters" was so delightfully clear and pointed, that we should like to hear a great deal more of her.

Another launching picture—Miss Stella Fung christening the "Shun Tien"

When these people attended the launching of H.M.S. Robin, little did they guess that she would so soon meet with misfortune. She was damaged in the recent early morning gale.

HIDDEN TALENT

It seems to be a good deal of talent hidden among all those pretty chorus girls, and they were so successful in all their numbers that the audience would welcome an individual turn from each one of them.

The "Spanish Burlesque" was excellent too, with Jack Grenham as a positively super "Senorita" and James Ferguson as a truly sinister "Hidalgo" of Spain.

The co-operation of the Cheero Band with Mr. True at the piano is enough to ensure the success of any entertainment, and they played all the songs and dances with a verve and abandon that was most exhilarating.

A presentation was made to Mr. True at the close of the evening, when a speech of thanks and farewell was made by Mr. A. R. Browne. He expressed regret felt by all the members of the Service Men's Section of the "Y." that Mr. True is so soon to leave the Colony, and the gratitude felt by everyone for all the delightful music he has provided for the last few years.

Mrs. Ingram also made a graceful little speech, when she presented the beautiful souvenirs from the Service Men of The Y.M.C.A. to which Mr. True made an appropriate and witty reply.

It is good news that there will be one more performance by The "Throw-Outs" before Mr. True departs, and it will be held at the Naval Canteen Theatre to-night when we may safely predict a full-house.

OUR VOLUNTEERS

The annual inspection of the Hong Kong Volunteers was held on Murray Parade Ground last Wednesday, and aroused a great deal of interest. The G. O. C., H.E. Major-General Borrett and his A.D.C. Captain Mears were received by Colonel Bird and Colonel Nosworthy, and when the inspection was over the Volunteers "marched past" in fine style.

The Colony owes a debt of gratitude to Colonel Bird for all he has done (and is still doing) for the Defence Force, and their commanding officer certainly had cause to feel well satisfied with the parade on Wednesday.

A number of friends and relations assembled to watch the proceedings. Mrs. Borrett always takes a good deal of interest in all regimental affairs, and was watching very particularly charming in a trimly-cut coat and skirt of brown worn with a brown hat and golden-fox stole. Mrs. Bird in a leopard-skin coat; with her daughter Miss Jean Bird. Mrs. Cock was in dark fawn with a little close-fitting hat to match.

Mrs. D. M. Richards looked awfully nice in royal-blue. Mrs. "Rusty" Forsyth and Mrs. de Ville, (both wearing green) were sitting together. Mrs. Johnson had a delightful costume of beige and terra-cotta. Mrs. Eric Mitchell was in navy-blue with a white hat; and came with her father, Colonel Robertson. Mr. and Mrs. Stopani Thompson arrived too late to secure any of the few seats available, but had a much better view from the bank, and we noticed that Mr. King and Mr. Burlingham also chose that vantage-ground.

FUTURE VOLUNTEERS

Mrs. R. Young brought her small son Graeme, who was very absorbed when the armoured cars and the mounted machine-gun troop went past. Little Peter Branson was with Mrs. Branson, and was thrilled when he suddenly discovered that his father (Lieut. V. C. Branson M.C.) was carrying the colours. Quite a lot of other young "future-volunteers" were watching intently, wishing no doubt that they were old enough to join-up.

In a brief, but inspiring speech Major-General Borrett held out hopes of further facilities for camping in the near future; and made the excellent suggestion that Sporting Clubs should co-operate with the Corps by arranging to free their members from the obligations of match-play, when camping was in progress.

Some cheery and appropriate selections of music were played by the Band of the South Wales Borderers, and the pipers of the Scottish Company also "did their bit" with great effect. Altogether it was a most interesting display.

AUTHORITY TO MAKE LOANS

Roosevelt Favours New Scheme

Washington, March 24.

According to Mr. Jesse Jones, Chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, President Roosevelt is favouring authority for it to make direct loans to industry where other lending agencies, including the intermediate credit banks, have failed to meet the demand, and when the loans are properly securable.

The President would likewise simplify the method of financing imports and exports, to the extent of giving the R.F.C. the right to own common as well as preferred stock of the export and import banks, thus making it unnecessary to use Public Works funds for the latter.

It has been recommended, and is expected to be incorporated, in a separate Bill, while lending provisions are likely to be considered jointly with the Bill for the creation of intermediate credit banks.—Reuter.

SILVER BLOC ADAMANT

Washington, Mar. 25.

Twenty-four members of the silver bloc have re-affirmed their stand to uphold silver as primary money at a fixed ratio with gold and have established a committee to promote legislation to that end.—Reuter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The annual sports of the St. Paul's College will be held at the S.C.A.A. ground, Caroline Hill, on March 28.

Mr. Squarey, the Eastern representative of the Gunard Line, is spending a few days in Hong Kong on his annual business trip round the Far East ports.

Among the recent arrivals in Hong Kong is Mr. J. H. Thompson, a director of the Anglo-Swiss Milk Company, who is staying at the Peninsula Hotel, while conducting business on behalf of his Company.

Two cases of small-pox and one of typhus fever figured in the returns of notifiable diseases which have been notified as having occurred in the Colony during the 24 hours ended on March 23.

The bodies of three Chinese, two males aged 14 and 10 and a Chinese girl aged 8, were found on the seashore south-east of Pu Tai Island, by Sub-Inspector Stewart in No. 4 Police Launch on Saturday evening. The apparent cause of death was drowning as the bodies were in a very decomposed state and showed no signs of wounds.

Many well known residents in the Colony were included in the passenger list of the President Coolidge which left for Shanghai on Saturday. Among them were Mr. A. L. Shields, principal of Messrs. Shawan Tomes & Co. and Commodore of the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. da Roza who are on a tour round the world; Mr. R. H. W. Maynard, clerk to His Lordship the Chief Justice; Mr. C. G. Melchers, partner in Messrs. Melchers & Co.

Fanlings and Fan-Tales

By Bromide.

Miss Yvonne Shenton going over the last hurdle.

Lady Peel presenting the Cups.

My story of the Fanling Races starts from Saturday night in the Hong Kong Hotel, where a hundred and one people gave parties to celebrate their recovery from St. Patrick. The feature of the evening was Sir William Hornell's bumper-party which filled the whole of one side of the dining room, and was obviously having a very good time. In it were many of the youth and beauty of Hong Kong, notably Pat Master with her fiancé, John Casson, home from the sea, Susan Potter, Yvonne Shenton, evidently much refreshed by her leave and Eileen Bonnar in a very lovely green frock which is always so much admired in this column that she will soon have to get another one in self defence. Among the men, the military predominated. Sir William sat in the middle of the table like a benevolent deity, making completely certain that everybody was enjoying themselves to the utmost.

It is not to be wondered at that I myself—sitting "at the back of the hall"—was dazzled by this brilliant gathering. So you won't get many dresses from me this time, I'm afraid.

When I reached Fanling on Sunday for the last steep-chase meeting of the season, I had a tendency to green spots before the eyes, and a revulsion from any colour except a nice dark blue.

The day started well, however. Lt. Col. Carrington Sykes and the officers of the Royal Artillery were at home in their mansions, and a number of very amusing lunch parties were given. The Colonel himself gave one, while Capt. Dunlop and John Hopes collected in "cads' corner" at the back of the tent—a big party including Jackie Stocker, his aunt, Miss Parry, a charming newcomer to the Colony, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Portman, Clive Garthwaite and a lot of others at whom I failed to focus. It was a first class lunch, and a first class music to a first class season.

BLAZE OF SUNSHINE

The races took place in a blaze of sunshine to the music of the A.W.S. band. In the first race, I was pleased to see Mr. Muckinay, who has taken so much trouble with "The Curlew," ride a clever race to win. In the second, Mr. Deitz was billed to ride Festival Eve, but he never turned up. Mr. Stocker straight from the luncheon table, met Festival's owner in the weighing room and packed up the ride. He rode a cunning pony very well; Festival Eve looks easy but has a trick of giving up half way if he isn't properly handled. Mr. Stocker used his ride so much that he tried to go round the course again after the finish. Third race, The Grand National, was the big event on the card. It was also the most exciting. The Gadwall, Jonny Hope's old pony, started off at a great pace, but the third time round on the far side, he took a jump by the roots, and I was glad to see his rider walking back safe and sound. Ken Kemble on White Heather also fell at this fence and was not so lucky, for he got hastily concussed. However, he has now completely recovered.

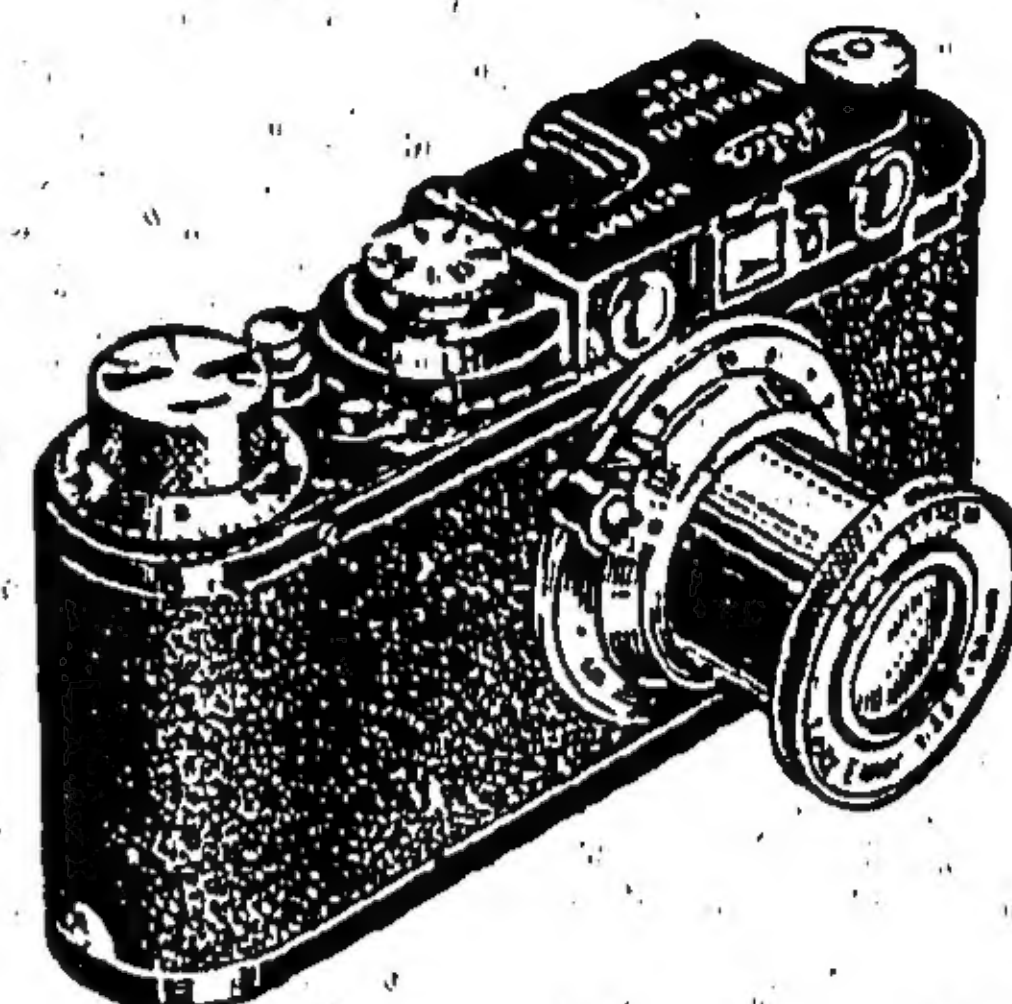

In the fourth race a number of "respected old hunting gentlemen" turned out for a jolly. That bold horse, The Hawk, tipped in "The Pink 'Un," was clearly irritated, and kicked his rider Mr. Hopes long before the start. In spite of the fact that the field seemed built for comfort rather than speed, Stephen Skey on the Quail produced the necessary for a "nice win" and paid $49 odd to this backer.

The ladies race was somehow "different." Put an obstacle in a woman's path and you bring out all her strongest characteristics. At all events the interposition of hurdles around the ladies' course was a great success. Elbows whipped out, jaws clenched, looking like Wallace Beery, and the whole field rode a most competent race. Yvonne Shenton on Wembley Stag was just a bit better than the rest. The last race was another (and last) triumph for "Jenks" whose grand pony, Tom Cobley, won easily. He might have been more sorely tried but Col. Marsh's pony, Tommy, showed an evident distaste for the racing fraternity, and left the course in the direction of Canton when in a challenging position in the straight.

After this we went back to the Hunters' Arms, and fought the season's battles over again. I forgot whether I was last out, or the other fellow.

FRENCH NOTE STRONGLY CRITICISED

CAPTAIN EDEN'S PLEA FOR PATIENCE

British And German Press Comment

London, March 24. The French Note in reply to the British Disarmament Memorandum is engaging the closest attention of British Ministers and will be prominently before them during the next few days.

Speaking last night, at Bradford, Lord Privy Seal, Mr. Anthony Eden, said he could not then comment, but urged that in the difficult days before the Conference resumed on April 10, the public should not assume too hurriedly that all had failed. There might be other less discouraging factors which did not appear on the surface. Answers from Italy, Germany and France would be studied with the greatest care. They had no illusions as to the difficulty, but in an endeavour of this kind the word "impossible" should have no place in their vocabulary. What the Government wanted to achieve was the realisation of the disarmament convention. Secondly the Government sought a restoration to the League itself of authority which it could only enjoy from a fuller membership than it commanded to-day.

Although it was generally hoped that the French Note would mark a greater advance towards an agreement, newspapers express the conviction it will not be allowed, to bring exchanges of view to a close, and issues upon which further questions and answers are obviously called for are freely discussed.

SACRIFICE OF TRADITION

The "Times" says the conclusion cannot be escaped that it is a new system of agreed limitation is to take the place of unilateral competition every signatory state must be prepared to share the responsibility of maintaining it intact. The sacrifice of tradition involved for Britain would be considerable, but there can be no doubt that otherwise no continual regulation of military armaments is likely to be established. It must, however, be the essence of any convention that every nation should be able to have its own defensive equipment in men and material. In a regulated system numbers and amount will be agreed on and known to all and verifiable. There will, in course of time, and if the system is maintained, be no armaments above the permitted level. The gain to international confidence and common prosperity would be incalculable. No effort must be spared so long as there is the smallest hope that this splendid objective can be reached.

The "Daily Herald" says the question of Britain's agreement to sanctions for a breach of fulfilment of the Convention depends on what kind of sanctions and what kind of convention. In the first place if British people are to accept new obligations it could only be in return for disarmament so considerable that it would of itself be a pledge both of peaceful purpose and of honest intent. Secondly, it would be out of question to agree to enforce any convention which did not frankly fulfil the pledge given at Geneva in 1922. Lastly, any obligations must be within the framework of the League. On these lines the "Herald" conceives it to be possible for the British Government to discuss questions posed in the French Note.

FACED WITH A DILEMMA
The "Morning Post," on the other hand, believes the Disarmament Conference is faced with a dilemma from which there is no escape and urges the British Government to abandon further assumption of the initiative which is foredoomed in advance.

The "Daily Telegraph" says the suggestion that the Locarno Treaty with its provisions against aggression should be extended to frontiers of practically all powers of Europe is out of the question. But the door to a further exchange of views on security is not closed, well smooth the path. If Hitler

Upon one matter Germany might would now definitely pledge Germany to return to the League upon the conclusion of an armaments agreement it would do much to remove suspicions and enormously facilitate further negotiations that must follow upon the French Note.—British Wireless.

ONLY AN ESSAY

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 25, 7.30 p.m.)

London, March 24. Commenting on the French Note to the British Disarmament Memorandum the "Star" says the document is an essay and not a Note at all and observes "that it reveals the prevalence in the French state of mind whose existence is due to the Stavisky scandal."

The "Star" continues that several members of the British Cabinet have carefully read through the text of the French Note in the hope of fathoming the French standpoint but up till now had not been able to fathom it's contents. The "Star" says it must be admitted that prospects of reaching an agreement are weak. "The Evening News" writes that the French Note means finally that France will not disarm, will not even consider disarmament, and would regard all further talk about disarmament a waste of time unless Great Britain replaces the Locarno Pact by a binding treaty undertaking to support France if attacked.—Transocean Kuo Min.

GERMAN VIEW

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 25, 7.30 p.m.)

Berlin, March 24. Expressions of feeling in the German Press on the French answer to the British Memorandum on Disarmament, reflect that general disappointment is felt at the apparent hopelessness of the whole outlook.

The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung in a leading article, "Rebregression," declares, "the contents of the Note are completely negative, partly illogical and as a whole constitutes a step backwards. One cannot be amazed at the assertion that Germany has presented exaggerated re-armament demands. In reality they represented for a minimum that any state which values its sovereignty must require."

The "Boersan Zeitung" judges that "after this French Note to England it seems almost hopeless to expect that France will be able to bring herself to make any acknowledgement of Germany's demand for equality of rights."
(Contents of the French are on Page One).

LONDON STOCK MARKET

London, March 24. Stock markets are quiet. British Government Stocks were maintained, War Loan 3 1/2 per cent, unchanged at 103 13/16. Gold 136 3/4. Silver, spot 20, forward 20 1/16.—British Wireless.

EMPLOYMENT IN GERMANY

Recent Figures Show Increase

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 25, 7.30 p.m.)

Berlin, Mar. 24. The recently published official figures compiled from material furnished by labour exchanges, showed that during February unemployment had declined by about 400,000.

This is a very gratifying result which has now been confirmed by the invalid insurance figures which show that at the end of February the number of employed paying premiums increased by 449,153 by comparison with the end of January.

By comparison with the lowest point touched by the employment curve, that is the end of January, 1933, the increase in the number of employed persons is 2,84 millions or 21.6 per cent and by comparison with the end of February, 1933, the increase is 2.43 millions or 21.1 per cent.—Transocean Kuo Min.

REBELS IN SHANTUNG

Pukow-Peiping Express Held Up

Nanking, Mar. 25. Lui Kwel Tang's rebel troops, who have been terrorising North China since their mutiny last December, have entered Shantung and are now menacing Tientsin. The Pukow express from Peiping was held up at Tsinan, yesterday, on account of the presence of bandits in the Yenchow and Wanch districts where Lui Kwel Tang's troops were reported to be approaching Tsinan yesterday morning with the object of crossing the railway.

Hun Fu Chu has arrived at Chiehchow from Tsinan to direct operations and a clash is reported to have occurred at Feicheng, north-west of Tsinan, on Friday night.—Reuter.

LATEST PROBLEM IN U.S.

To Keep Prices Within Bounds

New York, Mar. 25. The monthly survey of the Guarantee Trust Co. states that a most disquieting possibility in the outlook in the Government's price-raising programme is not that it will fail but that it will succeed too well. Security purchases by the Federal Reserve Banks and additions of real and nominal gold holdings, resulting from devaluation, have combined to produce a reserve base capable of supporting enormously the expanded credit superstructure. The Government's borrowing programme, provided it will continue, will provide an outlet for surplus funds that may make the creation of such superstructure a relatively quick development. The survey concludes, the time may not be far distant when the Administration's most serious problem will not be to achieve an advance in prices but to hold the advance within bounds.—Reuter.

STRIKE SITUATION IN AMERICA

HOPES OF SETTLEMENT BRIGHTER

New York Taxi Service Nearly Normal

Washington, March 24. Definite proposals by the Roosevelt Administration for the settlement of the motor-car strike have been promised the Trade Union leaders by General Johnson, the N. R. A. Administrator.

The nature of the proposals has not been disclosed, but it is understood that the manufacturers have yielded somewhat from their opposition to new elections to determine the right of the Unions to represent employees.

It is expected that the negotiations will end to-day one way or the other.

PART ACCEPTED.
Meanwhile, the railway managers have accepted part of the settlement programme of Mr. Joseph B. Eastman, Railway Co-ordinator, the terms of which, however, have not been disclosed. Mr. Eastman has indicated that there is ground for hope of a speedy end to the negotiations.—Reuter.

The peace plan for a settlement of the labour dispute seems to have been virtually completed. The Labour leaders again conferred at White House to night, and the Michigan delegation representing the disputing parties leaves for home to-morrow.—Reuter.

TAXI SERVICE

New York, March 24. The taxi service here is now nearly normal. Verbal battles between the authorities, taxi-owners and labour leaders are replacing pitched battles in the streets.

Mayor La Guardia has angrily accused the taxi-companies of endeavouring to conceal the fact that "they have been paying starvation wages."—Reuter.

HAMBURG MARINE CONFERENCE

Interesting Offer To Britain

Berlin, March 24.

A meeting of the Baltic and International Maritime Conference at Hamburg decided to recommend their respective governments to inform the British Board of Trade that they are ready to operate with the British and other governments on the basis of a project drawn up by the Conference, providing for the creation of a fund by governments willing to join an international agreement.

From the fund thus created, the shipping companies undertaking to lay up part of their tonnage will be financially supported.

As a general proposition, the shipping companies are prepared to lay up twenty-five per cent. of their tonnage. They will receive, under the scheme, ten shillings for every ton laid up for six months and twenty shillings for a year.

BRITISH INITIATIVE

The conference expressed the opinion that the initiative must be taken by the government of a country with a big shipping industry, which would convoke a conference of diplomats and shipping representatives to discuss the situation, and to form sub-committees to draw up a definite plan to be submitted to the various governments and shipping companies for final approval.

The next step, therefore, rests with Britain.—Reuter.

SILVER MARKET

(From Our Special Correspondent)

London, March 24. London silver prices to-day were as follows:—

The London on New York cross-rate at the closing to-day was $5.10.

CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS

New Laws For Austria

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 25, 7.30 p.m.)

Vienna, March 24. Deliberations about the Constitutional Reforms were continued by the Cabinet on Saturday owing to the enormity and complications of the task. It is now assumed that it will not be possible to complete the final draft before Easter. It is, therefore, likely that the Government will merely make a declaration to the people and postpone publication of the new Constitution until the first part of April.

The Sunday papers publish a confirmation of the new Constitution as recently announced. It is specially noteworthy that the new Constitution provides that laws drawn up by the Government cannot be altered by legislative bodies, but merely accepted or rejected.

Apparently there are to be four consultative corporations, one, a council of about forty to fifty members to be nominated by the Federal President for a period of ten years, two, a council of culture of about forty to fifty members, three, an economic council of seventy to eighty members and four, a confederate council of two members for each confederate state and two for Vienna.

The Bundestag or Confederate Congress—a body with decisive powers—will be formed by these four Chambers to a Council of State.

The initiative respecting the new legislation lies with the Government.

Drafts of the new laws will be submitted to the various chambers, for expression of expert opinion, the consultations and deliberations of which will not be made public. When the Government is in possession of recommendations from the various Chambers it will work out a final draft of the proposed laws and submit them to the Bundestag which is only empowered to accept or reject them.

An exception to this procedure will be made in the case of the State Budget, which goes straight to the Bundestag where it may be altered if thought fit, thereafter becoming law by a single majority vote.—Transocean Kuo Min.

A FIRST CLASS MYSTERY

Body Of Frenchman Discovered In Alley

Shanghai, March 24. A first-class mystery is confronting the police in the Shanghai International Settlement following the discovery of the fully-clothed dead body of a French subject J. Perrette, in an alley in the Bubbling Well district to-day.

The body bore no marks of violence. A subsequent police examination of his house unearthed gambling paraphernalia, including a roulette wheel and a room fitted out for opium smoking. Enquiries are proceeding.—Reuter.

U.S. LOAN TO FRANCE STOPPED

Washington, March 24. It is learned that the Treasury has warned New York banks not to participate in the loan of 100,000,000 guilders to France in anticipation of the enactment of Senator Johnson's Bill prohibiting loans to nations not paying war debts.—Reuter.

TO SAFEGUARD JAPANESE TRADE

STAVISKY INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE

RESULTS OF PROCEEDINGS ANNOUNCED

Parliament May Vote On Suspension Of Immunity

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 25, 4.30 a.m.)

Paris, Mar. 24. Judgment as to the complicity of four persons examined by the Parliamentary committee of inquiry on the Stavisky scandal has just been pronounced. The persons are the "Radical-Socialists," Depuies Proust, Hulin, and the Radical Senator Puaux and Right Wing Senator Odin. After repeated cross-examination of these Parliamentarians the Committee decided to hand the documents over to the Public Prosecutor which virtually means that these four men will be brought up for trial. Should the Court decide that the arrest of these four men is desirable the Stavisky Committee intend to call a special session of Parliament which has just adjourned for vacation to the middle of May. The object of re-assembly will be a vote of suspension conclusion that this special session of the Senate will be convened during the course of the coming week, and that the suspension immunity will be certain. The cross-examination of Senator Odin led to the mention of a former president of the French Republic as also a "customer of Stavisky." Pressed to give the name, Odin at last said it was Millerand. When ex-Premier Chautemps was cross-examined on Friday, he denied emphatically ever having met Stavisky or Arlette Simon who later became Madame Stavisky.—Transocean Kuo Min.

DID NOT COMMIT SUICIDE

Paris, Mar. 24. The latest autopsy on the body of Judge Prince has revealed that suicide was out of the question. Careful investigation showed that Prince was first choked and then laid on the rails where he was run over by a goods train. Prince did not recover consciousness while this happened. The murderers mysteriously removed the judge's shoes evidently with violence since one shoe was not un-laced, the reason being unknown.—Transocean Kuo Min.

IMPORT TAXES REDUCED

Paris, March 25. A decree has been published reducing the import taxes on goods from Malaya, Asia and Hongkong.—Reuter.

A DASTARDLY ACT

'Unknown Soldier's Medals Stolen

Washington, Mar. 25. The police are investigating into the theft from the trophy-room in the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, at the Arlington Cemetery. A number of medals presented to his memory (including the highest decorations from every Allied nation) were looted from the World War showcase, despite the fact that a sentry is constantly on duty in the building.—Reuter.

AUSTRALIAN TEST TEAM

Again Held To A Draw

Perth, Mar. 24. The Australian Test cricketers drew their third and last match in the Commonwealth before leaving for England when Western Australia held them to a draw in the two-day match which concluded yesterday.

Western Australia batted first and totalled 305. F. Bryant, a Test candidate scoring 76 and being associated in a big stand with Taffie, who scored 79.

Clarence Grimmett, who had 9 for 45 in his last game in Melbourne secured 5 for 90.

The tourists then compiled 237 for the loss of three wickets. E. H. Bromley carrying his bat for 59.

Scores were:—
W. Australia: 305 (Bryant 76, Taffie 79, Grimmett 5 for 90).
Australia: 237 for 3 (Bromley 59 not out).

The tourists leave for England on Monday and will meet Worcestershire in their opening fixture on May 2.—Reuter.

The following are the sixteen Australian players on tour:—

W. M. Woodfull (Victoria) (capt.), D. G. Bradman (N.S.W.) (vice-capt.), W. A. Brown (N.S.W.), E. H. Bromley (Victoria), B. J. Barnett (Victoria), E. A. Chipperfield (N.S.W.), L. ## RECOVERY OF REICHSBANK

German Ban On Raw Material

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 25, 4.30 a.m.)

Berlin, March 24. Until further notice all purchases from foreign countries of raw materials and half finished goods for industrial purposes above all cotton, wool, jute, and hard fibre, are forbidden by a law passed by the Reich Cabinet on March 22. This measure coming into force on Saturday is intended to be of only a temporary character and of short duration necessitated by the continuous shrinkage of the Reichsbank's stock of gold and foreign currencies which has now become so serious that the Government is obliged to subject the whole commerce of these materials to strict supervision.

From now onwards the principle will be followed of providing first for those industries where the raw materials in question assure employment for the greatest number of workers. This supervision will be exercised by specially created import offices. The Reich Economic Minister has already nominated supervisors for 1 cotton, situated at Bremen, 2 wool at Berlin, 3 other fibres at Berlin. To prevent speculation or over purchasing a special decree forbids unjustifiable price raising throughout the whole textile trade.—Transocean Kuo Min.

BLOCKADE OF FOREIGN MATERIAL

Berlin, March 24. What practically amounts to a world blockade of foreign raw materials is embodied in a German Bill, details of which are not yet published.

The Bill is a definite step to limit the imports of raw materials to an absolute minimum to assist the Reichsbank to accumulate new foreign currency reserves.

For the furtherance of this policy, the foreign Exchange Department has decided to allocate to importers, for April, only 35 per cent. in foreign currencies, as compared with 45 per cent. for March.—Reuter.

MANCHUKUO PARTY AT MOJI

Tokyo, March 24. The so-called Manchukuo mission, headed by the Premier, arrived at Moji this morning, according to a message received here from that port.—Reuter.

HAKODATE GALE DISASTER

Fear Dead Will Exceed 1,200

Hakodate, March 25. The death toll in the Hakodate fire disaster is so far estimated at 800. It is feared the number will exceed 1,200.—Reuter.

The fire, which broke out on Wednesday night as the result of a chimney being blown down and the embers being scattered in a house, rendered 92,000 people homeless, according to Friday's figures.

Almost immediately the fire started, the lights in the city went out, increasing the confusion. Within a few hours all the public buildings, including the broadcasting station and the telephone exchange had been gutted, and 23,000 houses were a mass of blazing ruins. The flames were fanned by a 70-mile-per-hour gale.

ORIGIN OF INFLUENZA

British Dr. Blames Yellow River

London, March 24. The origin of influenza is infected properties in the mud of the Yellow River, according to an article by Dr. Howard Wise, published in the "British Medical Journal."

He states that the infection originally travelled over the trade routes across Asia, and nowadays travelled by ships.

The overflowing of the Yellow River in 1899 and 1918 was followed by widespread epidemics due to mud, deposited over a wide area, drying, and then being scattered as dust.

He predicts that the world will be ravaged again in 1936 unless, in the meantime, the plague spot is recognised, and the Yellow River effectively dredged.—Reuter.

ALL EYES ON NANCHANG

Chiang To Confer With Leaders

Nanking, March 24. All eyes are directed on Nanchang where Marshal Chiang Kai-shek has convened a conference of military leaders for early April to discuss plans for the complete subjugation of Communists in Kiangsi within three months.

It is understood that aeroplanes will play a big part in the coming offensive.—Reuter.

LARGE GODOWN-WHARF

Soon To Be Established In Canton

We understand that owing to the inconvenience caused by the lack of a large godown wharf for ships and cargoes, the Canton Harbour Department recently decided that a large godown wharf should be built in the harbour of the Pearl River for the benefit of ocean-going steamers, which enter the harbour with their cargoes.

This large godown-wharf is to be built in the inner harbour or some other suitable place. It is reported that the detailed plans have already been made and submitted to the authorities of the Canton Reconstruction Department, and as soon as they have been approved construction work will immediately commence.

H.K.C.C. WINS CRICKET CHAMPIONSHIP

INDIANS LOSE TO ARMY IN LAST LEAGUE MATCH

Madar's Gallant Effort To Save Side Unavailing

By reason of the fact that their nearest rivals, the Indian Recreation Club lost to the Army in their last league match of the season, the Hong Kong Cricket Club have won the senior shield for the year 1933-34—their first success since 1928-9.

The Club are to be congratulated on their success and it will be of interest to note that their performance may be attributed to the fact that they had been turning out practically the same team for all their matches—a practice which they seldom adopted in the past.

The I.R.C. skipper, A. H. Madar, made a gallant but unavailing effort to win the game for his side, and his half-century, coming at a time when the other wickets were falling with a somewhat monotonous regularity, was a fine performance.

The results of the matches played on Saturday will be found below:—

LADIES HOCKEY TRIAL

Rest Team To Play Cup Winners

A very disappointing Ladies Hockey trial in preparation for the Caer Clark Cup Champions (Hongkong Ladies) versus the Rest team, took place at King's Park yesterday, when lack of combination among the forwards coupled with lack of initiative on the part of the halves and backs, wrecked what might have resulted in a splendid game.

Conditions were not exactly ideal for a trial as the drizzle made the surface slippery, but this had very little to do with the bad passing and receiving.

In the Probables-Rest eleven, G. Roza in goal was slightly nervous while F. K. Walker and M. Basto, the two backs combined well together and made up for any lapse caused by their halves.

T. Woolley was disappointing, surprisingly so for she has been consistently good this season and is considered one of the outstanding lady halves in the Colony. J. Wong was also disappointing, being unable to keep up her fast pace, while her distribution of the ball was very poor.

M. Bryson played a good game and was instrumental in breaking up several good movements by the opposing team.

Of the forwards, M. Woolley worked very hard as leader and distributed the ball well, feeding her wingers with excellent short and long passes.

H. Knill and M. Smith combined well on the right wing and should get their places in the Rest team, while O. Brown was the pick of the four wingers on display, her speed and ball control standing her in good stead.

In the Possibles-Rest team, J. Weller was very good in goal and saved several stinging grounders. J. Wilson was the pick of the two backs. A. Fowler being inclined to stray too far upfield and to hit aimlessly instead of stopping the ball before making a clearance.

Of the five forwards Mrs. M. Read was easily outstanding and on yesterday's form was ahead of M. Woolley. In any case should M. Woolley be indisposed there can be no doubt that M. Read would fill her position.

Thursday's Game.

There will be a further practice game next Thursday on the C.B.A. ground at King's Park, commencing at 5.15 p.m., the following having been selected to play.

Probables-Rest: J. Weller; K. Walker and M. Basto; J. Woolley, E. Beavis and K. Moir; H. Knill, M. Smith, M. Woolley, P. Gittens and O. Brown.

PEARCE SCORES THIRD CENTURY

A three-figure second wicket partnership between T. A. Pearce (100 retired) and G. R. Sayer (63 retired) and fine bowling by B. C. K. Hawkins (6 for 24) gave a team led by Hawkins victory over a greatly depleted K.C.C. side by 95 runs in Kowloon.

Hawkins' XI—208 for 7 dec. (T. A. Pearce 100, G. R. Sayer 63, Comd. Stephenson 21, C. B. R. Sargent 4 for 64).
K.C.C.—113 (S. V. Gittens 49, T. M. L. Redmond 17, B. C. K. Hawkins 6 for 24).

SCHOOL XI WIN

The Combined School's XI beat the Recrelo by 16 runs at King's Park.
C. S.—108 (A. J. Hulse 22, G. Lee 15, G. A. Gutierrez 3 for 25, A. Prata 3 for 18).

15 WICKETS FALL FOR 51 RUNS

At Happy Valley the K.C.C. second eleven beat the C.S.C.C. juniors by 5 wickets.
C.S.C.C.—39 (J. Hamer 16, F. S. W. Smith 3 for 14, W. L. McKenzie 4 for 7).
K.C.C.—41 for 5 (G. Champelovier 3 for 23).

H.M.S. CORNFLOWER

The senior naval officer will go on board on Thursday, March 29, to thank Captain, Officers, and Ship's company for their services on the China Station and wish them Godspeed and a pleasant voyage home. She will pay off on March 31, and will in future be used as a drill ship for the Hong Kong Naval Volunteer Reserve.

Possibles-Rest:—G. Roza or P. D'Almada; J. Wilson and A. Fowler; L. Xavier, J. Wong and M. Bryson; F. Wong, R. Blackmore, M. Read, A. Alves and M. Remedios.

INDIA WINS

Playing on the Marina ground, on Saturday, the Indian International hockey eleven defeated the Small Units by 4 goals to 1.

India opened the scoring through Kartar Singh, but Senior levelled the scores for the military soon after. Aytar Singh placed India ahead just before the interval.

In the second half India went further ahead through Kartar Singh who netted twice.

RECRELO WIN

In their final Caer Clark Cup Hockey encounter on Saturday at King's Park, the Recrelo "A" narrowly averted defeat at the hands of the Central British School, whose rousing display throughout almost won them the game but Miss A. Alves gave the Recrelo the lead in the first half, which they retained to the end.

The Schoolgirls played excellent hockey and it was sheer bad luck that they failed to force a draw, which would have been a fair indication of the play.

In the first half the losers attacked from the start but several promising movements failed to end in the net owing to over-eagerness and slightly careless hitting.

The Recrelo carried out many raids which failed owing to lack of combination among the inside forwards. Eventually a scramble in the Schoolgirls' goal saw Miss A. Alves score with a powerful shot.

In the second half the Recrelo were penned into their twenty five for the majority of the period and it was only due to the very fine clearances affected by M. Basto

LOCAL FOOTBALL

Borderers Win The Shield

South China (holders) were defeated in the Challenge Shield final by the South Wales Borderers by three clear goals.

South China took the field without their centre-half—Leung Wing Chui, a player of outstanding merit in local soccer.

They were further handicapped by Lau Mau being on the sick list, Tum Kong Pak leaving the forward line to partner Lee Tin Sang at back.

The game was witnessed by a very large crowd and on the run of the play the Borderers were worthy champions.

In division I, The East Lancashire Regiment defeated the H.K. Police on the Railway ground by two clear goals, while in division II, Young Indians beat the H.K. Club by the odd goal in three.

In division III, South China defeated the Radio by three clear goals and strengthened their position as runners-up to the Lincoln Regiment. The only team that can overtake them is the R.A.S.C.

SENIOR CHALLENGE-SHIELD FINAL

South Wales Borderers v. South China

The South Wales Borderers reversed the result of last year's Championship final when they went down last year to South China.

The Borderers won on Saturday by three clear goals and never throughout the match was South China on top.

Taking a lead early in the game, by what may be termed a lucky goal, the Borderers kept South China on the defence for the major portion of the game. From a flag kick taken by Duncan, Jones lobbed the ball over the heads of several players, and Wong Wing saw the ball too late to make any attempt to clear.

Before the interval the Borderers increased their lead when Fortey turned in a pass from Duncan giving Wong Wing no chance.

Crossing over two goals down, South China opened with a spirited attack, but found the Borderers defence in top form. Mullane and Morrison were safe, but the outstanding player was Fodmore in the pivotal position.

The only danger of the South China attack was between Fung, King Cheong, and Pau Ka Ping, Fodmore rising to the occasion, kept these two players well in hand. Mathias made the game safe when he cut in from the right and beat Wong Wing all the way with a fast cross shot.

South Wales Borderers—Smith; Mullane, Morrison; Davies, Fodmore, Underwood; Mathias, Hazlewood, Fortey, Jones and Duncan. South China—Wong Wing; Tam Kong Pak, Lee Tin Sang; Tong Kwan, Lee Kwok Wal, Leung In Chan; Yeung Shui Yick, Tai Quai Liang, Pau Ka Ping, Fung King Cheong and Ng Po Kui.

Presentation of Trophies

At the close of the match, Lady Southern, who was accompanied by the Hon. Sir Thomas Southern, K.B.E., C.M.G., President of the Hong Kong Football Association, presented the Challenge Shield to Cpl. Mullane, the Captain of the Borderers team and the "David" Cup to Pau Ka Ping, South China A.A. Each player of both teams were presented with a small shield. Mullane presented to Lady Southern a bouquet in a holder tied with the Association's colours and called for three cheers which were lustily given.

YESTERDAY'S GAME

St. Joseph's Defeat Gunners

Yesterday at Caroline Hill, St. Joseph's defeated the Gunners in a Division I league match and are now one point only behind the Lincoln Regt. who top the table.

The Gunners were forced to turn out several reserves and they did well to hold St. Joseph's to a goal.

The only goal of the match was due to the Gunners defence failing to clear the ball. Passing back to their own players the Gunners made the opening for the goal and Leonard taking advantage of these errors rushed in to beat Durham early in the second half.

The Gunners tried hard to pull the game round and went very close, but when the final whistle sounded St. Joseph's were leading by a goal to nil.

St. Joseph's—Marques; Gomes, A. V. Gosano; Marques, Beltrao, Elms; B. Gosano, Ward, D. Leonard, Rocha and Costa.

R.A.—Durham; Worthington, Hopkins; Scott, Pardo, Harris; Rivers, Knight, Woods, Edmunds and Seal.

ALL-WEATHER CRICKET

A Matter Of Light

With the forthcoming visit of the Australian Team to England during the coming Summer, cricket looms very large in the public eye once again. With this stimulus the game, whether on village greens or club ground, will be played more keenly than ever.

Thanks to indoor schools the winter months, nowadays enable latent talent to be discovered and developed, and there is likely to be an increasing number of these schools opened in some of the larger cities in the near future.

A fine example exists almost within a stone's throw of the Houses of Parliament at Westminster in the spacious, basement of the Thames House, Millbank, known as the "Allan Fairfax" School of Cricket.

This school possesses six full-size pitches with a 10 yard run for the bowlers, as well as "junior" pitches. Some of these are of canvas on concrete for fast bowling, while others are of a special composition to simulate "stick wicket" conditions. The lighting scheme, which was designed by the General Electric Co., of London possesses interesting features.

Dispersive reflectors with 200 watt Osram lamps are installed above the nets over the pitches, while side lighting is provided by a number of angular reflectors with similar lamp equipment. As a result of careful spacing and mounting heights, there is an average illumination intensity of some 15 foot-candles on these pitches. The sighting of the ball is good even with the fastest professional bowling, and players are loud in their praise of the even nature of the lighting, all shadow difficulties having been overcome successfully.

There is the certainty that, no matter what the weather may be, batting, bowling or wicket-keeping practice can be indulged in under first class conditions, and these facilities are proving a boon to London players who previously had to travel long distances for practice.

ORDINATION OF WILLIAM ARTHUR MOLYNEUX

Love which God gives to us in Jesus Christ. We may think that, or we may think that about Jesus Christ. We may use that phrase and this phrase, and all our skill to describe Him to those who do not know Him. But, is there anything that captures more of His heart, more of His mind, more of His very being, than His taking bread and breaking it, taking a Cup and sharing it, giving, giving, giving, in terrible simplicity His whole being to men. That, and nothing else, is the work of a priest of God. It is to share the ministry of that Master Minister who all called.

But have no fear. We may be earthen vessels. But the treasure is God's. He will give it to you. He will keep you in His way. He will be to you your constant friend, your Saviour, and your God. He will show you day by day what He would have you do, and give as he gave those first ministers of His. "His Body and His Blood that you may share His Life."

HONG KONG LAWN TENNIS ASSOCIATION

The annual general meeting of affiliated clubs of the Hong Kong Lawn Tennis Association will take place at the Sanitary Board Room, Post Office Building on Friday, April 6, 1934, at 5.30 p.m. and the report of the Executive Committee is as under:

League Matters

The Association's activities have been sustained with special attention paid to the welfare and progress of the tennis league. In this connection certain alterations were effected in the conduct of the league effect having been given to the new proposals passed at the last annual meeting. A system of promotion and relegation was introduced, both as an effort to improve the "A" Division, the state of which had not been satisfactory during recent years, and as a means further to stimulate interest among the clubs. Teams were drafted from the "B" and "C" Divisions to higher sections, and there is no reason to doubt that the effect was beneficial in every way. Players who had hitherto found it almost impossible to reach higher grade tennis were given the opportunity of meeting the better players, and must have gained valuable help from the experience. The new method of playing league matches during the week instead of on Saturday worked satisfactorily.

Interport

An invitation was received from Shanghai to send a Men's and Ladies' Interport team to compete for the Taggart Cups, but unfortunately it was found impossible to raise either team. An invitation was in turn extended to Shanghai to visit Hong Kong, but it could not be accepted, and as a result 1933 saw no Interport tournament.

Visiting Players

During the year a number of distinguished tennis players passing through the Colony and appearing in public exhibitions. In the early part of the year the Japanese Davis Cup team, comprising Messrs. Jiro Satoh, R. Nuno and

K. Itoh gave a brilliant display on the Hong Kong Cricket Club ground, and subsequently Messrs. L. Gavla and Pollman, the Manila champions, visited the Colony and were also seen in action. In November the Association, in conjunction with the Hong Kong Cricket Club, had the privilege of arranging for Miss Dorothy Round and Miss Mary Healey, two of England's leading players, to give an exhibition here. Their magnificent display was highly appreciated by the big crowd who filled the stand court at the H.K.C.C., and local tennis was given a decided flip by their appearance.

The Association desires to express its thanks to the H.K.C.C., K.C.C., and other clubs who kindly placed courts at their disposal for the staging of these various exhibition matches.

Champions

S. A. Rumjahn won the singles tennis championship of the Colony for the second year in succession, and with his cousin, H. D. Rumjahn, carried off the doubles title for the ninth successive year. The ladies' singles championship was won by Mrs. James, who, partnered by Mrs. Lochner, also won the ladies' doubles. The Mixed Doubles Championship was won by L. Goldman and Mrs. Lochner.

Ranking Lists

It was felt that there was a need of an official L. T. A. Ranking List, and in September this was drawn up and published by the Interport Selection Committee, as a guidance to "seeding" in the open tournaments, and in the selection of Interport teams.

Finances

The result of the year's working shows a net profit of $1,039.49. Exhibitions netted a profit of $448.03.

The League showed a profit of $284.38, and included in this amount is $14.85 being excess of proceeds from advertising in the League Handbook over cost of printing. Our thanks are due to the advertisers for their support in this annual publication.

ATTACK ON HONG KONG

Saturday Night's Mimic War

Hong Kong was in a state of war last Saturday night—or so it appeared to be, judging by the number of men in khaki seen all over the Colony.

Island Road, near the Dairy Farm, was one of the many places where numbers of men were seen in earnest conversation, and one gathered the impression that there was something amiss. One Company, marching towards Aberdeen, had their mascot along with them—a fine specimen of a pointer, while a little beyond Mount Davis Road was seen a "signal station."

Coming down Garden Road, the writer saw a number of Volunteers—some just going into Headquarters while others were leaving. Questioned why they were "up and about" at so late an hour, these men would only dismiss the question with a casual "nothing at all."

In Belcher's Fort were the Artillery Company of the Volunteers and it was later learned that the Navy were "at-tacking" Hong Kong and that the Garrison and the Volunteers were detailed to "repulse all attacks."

LAWN BOWLS

"Wappingchaw" Games at K.B.G.C.

An enjoyable afternoon was had at the Kowloon Bowling Green Club on Saturday when the "Wappingchaw" games were held.

Thirty-two names were placed in a hat, and the rinks were formed as the names were drawn, the skips and various positions being governed by the order of the draw.

After an afternoon of exciting, if not good bowling, Joe Fraser's four ran out winners of the Competition and of the ash-bowls for which they played.

CARGO BOATS DISASTER

Aground and Sunk on Account of Heavy Fog

Latest reports from the Chinese sources states that during the week-end, two large cargo boats the "Tai Sang" and the "On Kee" ran aground and sank in the Canton waters during a heavy fog.

The former occurred near the shore of the river facing the Tam Kung Temple, while the latter was in the Sand River of Canton. Both boats suffered severe damage to their hulls and sank after a few minutes.

It is reported that there were no other cargo on board the boats other than pigs, which are now believed to have all been drowned.

The total loss is estimated at $5,000.

ST. ANDREW'S TROOP OF BOY SCOUTS

Hold Farewell Parade To Rev. Walton Rogers

The First Kowloon (St. Andrew's) Troop of Boy Scouts, under Scout Master Dormer and A. S. M. Wong, held a parade yesterday forenoon and attended service at St. Andrew's Church. There were about 20 Scouts, while a similar number of Cubs were also present under Cub Master Wong.

The parade was in the nature of a farewell to the Rev. W. Walton Rogers, who is shortly leaving the Colony.

LEGAL BATTLE FOR £11,000

Securities Claimed by Ex-King Alfonso

Special Air-Mail Service

London, March 2.

A legal battle for the £11,000 worth of securities which are said to form part of the private fortune of ex-King Alfonso of Spain began to-day before Mr. Justice Lawrence in the King's Bench Division.

The securities are claimed both by the Bank of Vizcaya and the ex-King.

The Westminster Bank, who hold the securities to the order of the Spanish bank, are taking no part in the present action, the having already been decided by the court that they are to deliver the securities to the successful party in the suit.

Mr. Stuart Bevan, K. C. for the Spanish bank, said that the effect of recent Spanish legislation had been to transfer all properties of the ex-King to the present Government. The Spanish bank stood faced with a claim for delivery up of the securities to the Spanish Government.

He contended that if King Alfonso had any rights in the matter his proper course was to sue the Bank of Vizcaya in the Spanish courts.

Mr. Bevan read an affidavit by King Alfonso in which he declared that the Banco de Vizcaya had no title to or interest in the securities, which were bought by him with his own money.

SUICIDE SENSATION AT SHANGHAI

FOREIGNER TAKES OVER DOSE OF AMYTAL

Spanish Jewess Attempts To Take Her Life

Shanghai, Mar. 23.
A sensation was caused in Shanghai by the suicide of C. C. Julian, fifty-two, who is wanted in Oklahoma on charges of fraudulent share pushing and who had found refuge in Shanghai last June. He claimed he was Canadian and unextraditable. He took amytal and died this morning in Hospital.

His secretary, a Spanish Jewess, twenty-years old, also attempted to commit suicide but is still alive. —Reuter.

DINES WITH SECRETARY

Shanghai, March 23.
Julian had dinner with his secretary, Leonora Levy, at the Astor House last night, after which he went to his room. Levy followed later, found him unconscious and rushed him to hospital. She then returned to her own hotel where she learned by phone that Julian was dead. She telephoned her brother, who arrived to find her hysterical. He had her sent to hospital for attention and subsequently she left, but was brought back. It is believed she also took amytal.

A month ago Julian completed a book "What Price Fugitive?" He had been trying to sell shares and it is believed financial difficulties was the main cause of his suicide. —Reuter.

HAD BEEN WORTH A FORTUNE
Leonora Levy was pronounced to be out of danger this afternoon. It is understood that Julian attempted to commit suicide by slashing his wrist a week ago. He claimed he had been worth $300,000 in his heyday and had planned to deal in stocks and shares in Shanghai where he foresaw great possibilities, but, failed to obtain backers. —Reuter.

OIL PRICES IN CANTON

Kerosene Now 5.80
Per 5 Gallons

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, March 23.
Kerosene prices here have gone up, following the cessation of price cutting by the three leading oil companies with Russian, products and the elimination of the smaller Chinese oil refining companies. Chinese refined oil is now sold at $4.40 and imported oil at $5.80 per can of five gallons. The former rate was $3.55 and $4.30 respectively. Further increase is likely next month for the recent reduction is so low that the foreign oil companies were suffering heavy losses.

The competition between foreign and Chinese firms is over following the closing of many small native oil refining companies. Further cut-throat competition would spell disaster to these concerns. British, American and Russian oil companies at Shanghai have agreed to stop all competition in China; hence it is possible to make the prices higher.

FISHING VESSEL MISSING

Another Storm Casualty

The sudden squall which sprang up early last Wednesday morning, causing severe damage to countless numbers of Chinese fishing craft and the loss of several lives, is now reported to be responsible for the loss of yet another craft. Chinese Fishing Boat No. 6036-W, which has been missing since five o'clock on Wednesday morning, which is carrying a Chinese male and a Chinese female, was last seen in the vicinity of Kuo Chau, west of Lung Shun-wan.

RANGE FINDING DEVICE

New Instrument For British Navy

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 23, 4.30 a.m.)

London, March 24.
The British fleet is being equipped with a new range finding device increasing the percentage of effective shots five-fold, reports the naval correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph." Whereas hitherto only about three per cent. of shots fired took effect, the new appliance makes fifteen per cent. fairly certain. The name of this equipment is "predictor." The rights to utilise the patent have already been acquired by the United States and several other countries. In target practice at an object one mile away moving at a rate of 190 miles an hour, 29 per cent. of hits were achieved. The "predictor" is operated by six men and is a kind of calculating machine for determining exactly the height and speed of a flying object.—Transocean Kuo Min.

AN ENORMOUS LANDSLIDE Italian Villages Threatened

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, March 23, 4.30 a.m.)

Milan, March 24.
Moving at the rate of several feet an hour on a front of some 6,000 feet breadth, a huge landslide is proceeding from Monte Ercole in the Apennines in the district of Montevetre and threatens to engulf and demolish the picturesque village of Sant'Agata Feltria, situated 2,000 feet above sea-level. Two bridges and nine houses have already been destroyed by the landslide while another large building is being carried away on the top of the moving mass which is following the road to Sarsino. The villagers are hurriedly evacuating their homes and troops have been ordered to the site to assist them in removing their possessions.—Transocean Kuo Min.

general public and will provide employment to over 2,000 workers.

AMERICA'S POLICY IN THE FAR EAST

ATTITUDE DESCRIBED AS CAUTIOUS FRIENDLINESS

Better Relations With Japan Expected

London, March 24.
The Washington correspondent of "The Times" discusses, in connection with the Philippines Independence and Naval Construction Bills, the new trend of the American Far Eastern policy.

He describes the American attitude as "cautious friendliness." It does not favour a substantial modification of the existing naval treaties, and also does not contemplate the abandonment of the Stimson policy in Manchukuo until it can be absorbed into something more susceptible to the practical rather than to the rhetorical support, he declares.

In other directions, however, positive contributions to the betterment of the Japanese-American relations are likely.
